Commission to Rule Railroads.

United States Supreme Court Hands Down Far-Reaching Decision.

All Equipment of Roads Engaged in Interstate Commerce Affected.

Must Comply With Safety Appliance Act, Held Constitutional.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES]
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Complete control of all the railroads of the country by the Interstate Commerce Commission and virtual elimination of the State commissions from such control is foreshadowed in an opinion handed down today by the Supreme Court of the United States. The court held that hereafter all locomotives, cars or other equipment used on any railroad which is a highway of interstate commerce must comply with the Federal safety appliance act.

In its opinion, the court held that compliance with the Federal law is compulsory on all railroads engaged in the transportation of persons or freight from one State to another. Distinguishing this, however, it held that the cars or equipment of such roads, even if engaged in transportation within the confines of a State, must be considered as part and parcel of the road and therefore completely under the jurisdiction of the Federal commission.

Members of the Interstate Commerce Commission are jubilant at the ruling of the Supreme Court, which was unanimous. Referring to the court's opinion, Commissioner Lane declared: "It means, eventually, that there is to be no dual control of interstate commerce."

POINT AT ISSUE.

The determination of this mooted question was laid down in an opinion read by Justice Vandewater in a case instituted by the government against the Southern Railway. The question at issue was whether the Federal act applied in the case of a shipment from one point in Alabama to another point in the same State, the shipment being in an improperly equipped car. The lower courts held that there had been a violation of the law and their judgment was sustained by the Supreme Court.

Justice Vandewater held that the law applied to all equipment on a highway of interstate commerce, whether at the time it was carrying interstate or intrastate commerce. He then held—and was sustained by the court's unanimous opinion—that the safety appliance act was constitutional.

Speaking only of railroads that are highways of both interstate and intrastate commerce, says Justice Vandewater, "these things are of common knowledge: Both classes of traffic are at times carried in the same car and when this is not the case, the cars in which they are carried are commingled in the same train and in the switching and other movements at terminals."

"Cars are seldom set apart for exclusive use in moving either class of traffic, but generally are used interchangeably in moving both; and the situation is much the same with trainmen, switchmen and like employees, for they usually, if not necessarily, have to do with both classes of traffic. Braking, the several trains on the same railroad are not independent in point of movement, so far as they are interdependent for whatever brings delay or disaster to one, or re-

The throne promises to organize a cabinet without nobles forthwith. The Manchu Prince, Shih Hsu, President of the Assembly, is permitted to resign, the Chinese, Li Chin Chu, succeeding him. The Manchu, Kuei Chun, Minister of Constabulary, has been removed and the Chinese, Chao Ping Chun, superseded him.

The lines around Peking are tightening. While there is no great panic among the higher classes and the foreigners, there has been a perceptible tension everywhere. The Legation quarter is preparing for emergencies and in some cases temporary fortifications have been erected of bags of sand.

HAMILTON CLUB HEARS MR. TAFT*Witnesses the Laying of a New Corner-Stone.Departs in the Evening for Pittsburgh, Pa.President Said to Be Tired by His Long Trip.*

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—President Taft surprised a large audience at the dinner of the Hamilton Club today when most of his hearers construed to be an admission of the possibility of a Republican defeat in the coming national election.

He was speaking to what had promised to be an enthusiastic audience of Republicans.

Republicans present hastened to ascribe the President's utterances to weariness after his long tour of speech making and especially after the three days' hard "campaigning" in Chicago. It was his last public utterance in Chicago before leaving for Pittsburgh to-night. He said:

"We are at some people think, a crisis in the Republican party with reference to its continuance in the guidance of the nation. I am hopeful that the good people of the country, who know a good thing when they see it, have only chastened us a bit in an off year in order that we may be better prepared and in order that we may be more careful hereafter but have no intention of shifting from shoulders that are fitted to bear the burdens of the present problems and carry them to a successful solution to those who are untried and who have new theories of action that we do not believe in and we do not believe the people believe in."

However, if it develops that they do not care to bear the burden of supporting the new government under any conditions with the hope that it will insure to the benefit of the country, but with the consolation that if, after one trial, the people think they ought to go back to the old party that served them so well in the progressive days of the nation, why, we can bear that experience."

After his address the President retired to the seclusion of his hotel for a rest. Though he professed no weariness, the three days' steady strain had told on him, and it was a tired man who led the Presidential party out of Chicago at 5:30 p.m. over the Pennsylvania Railroad for Pittsburgh.

The address before the Hamilton Club, in which the possibility of a found expression, followed the laying of the corner stone of the new home of the Hamilton Club, one of the leading Republican clubs of the Middle West.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Laura Biggar's fight for 60 per cent. of the $1,000,000 estate of the late Henry Bennett of Pittsburgh, which has figured in the criminal and civil courts for nine years, was renewed in Jersey City today when her counsel filed a bill in chancery chambers asking for an accounting of the Bennett estate by the executors.

After a long controversy in the courts as to the claims of her baby, which died, she signed away her claim upon the Bennett estate, for $100,000. Now she seeks the entire 60 per cent.

The vice-chancellor gave the trustees three weeks in which to make an accounting.

That One Man Threatened to Take Another to the Penitentiary With Him as the Result of "Putting Over" Candidate in Wisconsin Is Testimony of Duluth Citizen

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.), Oct. 30.—The story that Edward Hines, the lumberman, and Robert J. Shields assisted in the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson, as given in the testimony of Lieut.-Gov. Thomas Morris, was retold before the Senatoral Investigating Committee today with added details.

State Senator Paul O. Huston, who was with Morris in an attorney's office in Chicago, testified that at that time he overheard Wirt H. Cook of Duluth, giving details about alleged relations between Hines and Shields.

Cook said he obtained information about a dispute which Shields had with Hines over the amount of money that ought to be paid for Shields' work in buying the Legislature.

"The understanding," said Cook, was that Hines had gone to Washington and told Stephenson money would be furnished to put over the election. Shields was employed to do the "putting over." Then when the work was done, Shields demanded his pay for it.

Hines said he'd send Shields to the penitentiary if the latter insisted on demanding $15,000. Then Shields replied to Hines: "I've burned your buildings for you, bribed your assessors and committed every crime in the calendar for you, and you bet if I go to the penitentiary you will go too."

On cross-examination, Huston admitted he had nothing but hearsay evidence concerning this phase of the investigation. Lieut.-Gov. Morris previously had given much the same account of what Cook was alleged to have said.

It was announced by Senator Heyburn that the investigation would close tomorrow if the remaining witnesses could be examined in time. Senator Stephenson and his campaign managers are to be given an opportunity to go on the stand.

Explained the detail with which the investigation had been conducted for four weeks, Senator W. B. Heyburn, the chairman, said:

"We do not intend that later anyone shall say we neglected any part of these charges or that we have attempted to whitewash Senator Stephenson."

TRINIDAD (Colo.) Oct. 30.—[By A. P. Day Wire.] Edward West, millionaire, died here today of paralysis of the heart. Mr. West was 65 years old and came here penniless forty-two years ago. A widow, two sons and two daughters survive.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 30.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Father M. J. Dorney, pastor of St. Gabriel's Catholic Church, known as the "Mayor of the district back of the yards," ordered the proprietors of the thirty saloons in the district to close every evening last week and they obeyed the order without a word. The mission which closed last night was given this year by the Paulist fathers. It opened two weeks ago and Father Dorney soon discovered that the men were not attending as they should. Characteristically direct, the rector mounted the pulpit one evening and proceeded to lay the blame where it belonged. "You men own saloons, I want you to close them," he said. "I'll open them again next week." Father Dorney removed it last night, thanked the saloon-keepers and incidentally took occasion to lay down a code of business principles in keeping with the spirit of the mission. "Keep your places clean and conduct your business on as high a moral standard as the grocery or drygoods business," he advised. "There is no reason why the saloon-keeper should not occupy as high a place in the community as any other tradesman." Father Dorney has ruled as "Mayor" of the stockyards district for thirty-two years.

HEARTBURN, GAS AND INDIGESTION GO FIVE MINUTES AFTER TAKING PAPE'S DIAPESPAN.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble why don't you keep some Diapespain in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat, without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach five minutes after you take it.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases, of Pape's Diapespain, then you will readily see why it makes indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and other distress go in five minutes, and relieves at once such miseries as belching of gas. Eructations of sour, undigested food, nausea, headaches, dizziness, constipation, and other stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion and Diapespain or an out-of-order stomach with the common, everyday cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe theirs is a case of gastritis, catarrh or the stomach or cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid. Gas and stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, Father Dorney has ruled as "Mayor" of the stockyards district for thirty-two years.

WANTS DAMAGES FROM A UNION.

Oklahoma Miner Appeals to the Supreme Court.Says Organization Put Him on Blacklist.Alleges He Lost His Position on Its Orders.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.), Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That he had been blacklisted by the United Miners of America and threatened with death in case he got judgment against the union, are charges made in his appeal to the Supreme Court by J. H. Roddy of Phillips, Coal county, Okla., in which he petitions for $100,000 damages. Roddy says he had been a miner twenty-five years and had been working as entryman for the Western Coal and Mining Company eight years at $125 a month when the union began its attack on him, listing him as unfair to union labor and went to the manager of the mine and insisted that he be discharged, which was done, although his superiors assured him his work was absolutely satisfactory.

During the eight years at Phillips, Roddy states he had bought property and built a home. Now he says he cannot get employment as a miner in Coal county, and will have to leave town to earn a living. His credit, he says, has been destroyed by the attack of the union and in case he should win his suit and be adjudged damages he has been threatened by members of the organization, he alleges, that "he would never live to get the money."

Roddy is suing the national organization as well as 2250 of its members. He asks $75,000 actual and $25,000 exemplary damages.

ACCUSATIONS ARE MADE.

Bakersfield in the Throes of a Prohibition Campaign Hears Bad Charges Hurled About.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Direct accusations by the "dry's" that the registration for the local option election tomorrow has been padded by the "wets" and the promise of active challenging on both sides have prompted the appointment of two special policemen to do duty at each of the thirty-four precincts, the first in the history of the city, that such precautions were taken.

Last evening one street meeting started by the "dry's" was broken up by a howling gang of some two dozen hoodlums and another meeting in another part of the city was interrupted by shouting and the honking of auto horns.

The saloon interests have been claiming a two-to-one majority, but a "wet" orator tonight admitted in his speech that there "seems to be grave danger to the future of the city" from the prohibitionists. The "dry's" held no meetings tonight, but men who are to work at the polls were given final instructions early and sent home to bed.

SUES FOR DAMAGES.

E. A. White and Irene White have filed suit against The Emporium of San Francisco for $8000 damages for alleged injuries received by Mrs. White while in the store shopping on October 28, last. It is alleged that a heavy iron lamp fell striking Mrs. White's head and $500 was asked for "doctor" fees, $2500 for loss of services and $5000 for general relief. E. L. Foster of Bakersfield and Charles A. Barnhart of Maricopa are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

DAY OF THANKSGIVING NAMED BY PRESIDENT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

C HICAGO, Oct. 30.—President Taft today issued his annual Thanksgiving proclamation, calling on the citizens of the United States to celebrate Thanksgiving the thirtieth of November, next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. The proclamation reads as follows:

"The people of this land, having by long tradition and practice set apart toward the close of each passing year a day on which to come from their labors and assemble for the purpose of giving thanks to Him, who is the author of the blessings they have enjoyed, it is my duty as Chief Executive to designate at this time the day for the fulfillment of this devout purpose."

"Our country has been signalized in many ways. The round of the seasons has brought rich harvests. Our industries have thriven far beyond our domestic needs, the products of our labor are daily finding ready markets abroad. We have been freed from the curse of pestilence, of famine and of war. Our national councils have furthered the cause of peace in other lands and the spirit of benevolence has brought us into closer touch with other peoples. The strengthening of the bonds of fellowship and good will that link us to our comrades in the universal brotherhood of nations. Strong in the sense of our

Sir Wilfred T. Grenfell, who has won an international reputation for his work among the deep-sea fishermen of Labrador, will visit Los Angeles with his wife next March. A telegram to this effect was received yesterday by Dr. A. J. Stott of this city from Dr. Andrews of Santa Barbara, who was the guest of Sir Wilfred this summer in Labrador.

The saloon interests have been claiming a two-to-one majority, but a "wet" orator tonight admitted in his speech that there "seems to be grave danger to the future of the city" from the prohibitionists. GOVERNMENT'S ANSWER.

The answer of the Attorney-General to the plan of dissolution and reorganization after referring to the directions of the Supreme Court to restore competitive conditions says:

"Obviously the effect of any plan of disintegration submitted to the consideration of the court must be more or less a matter of conjecture, and it is impossible for the court to determine in advance whether a plan which proposes to restore competitive conditions will actually accomplish the purpose intended.

"Any decree ascertaining and determining upon a plan should therefore reserve to the government the right, at any time within five years from date of entry, to apply to the court for other or further relief from a showing that, as a matter of fact, such plan has not resulted in creating a new condition which shall be honestly in harmony with the law. To that end, as well as for the other purpose hereinafter expressed, each and every one of the new corporations proposed to be organized for the purpose of carrying out the plan should be brought in as a party to the decree in order to be subjected to the jurisdiction of the court and bound by its decree."

CONDITIONS ASKED.

The Attorney-General asks that whatever plan be adopted, be subject to the following conditions:

The corporations among which the properties and businesses in the combination are to be distributed for a period of five years shall not have any officer or directors in common.

The companies shall not have any stock interest in each other.

They shall not employ the same agencies for the purchase of leaf tobacco or other raw material, or for the sale of tobacco or other products.

They shall not retain or employ the same clerical or office force, or occupy the same office or offices.

No one of them shall hold capital stock in any other corporation, any part of whose stock is also held by any of the other corporations among which the properties of the combination are distributed.

To this end that the twenty-nine individual defendants in this suit," the Attorney-General continues, "shall not increase their control over any of the corporations among which the properties and businesses now in the combination are to be distributed pursuant to the plan, than such defendants can exercise from time at any time within five years from the date of the decree, acquiring, directly or indirectly, the legal or equitable ownership of any amount of stock in any one of said corporations in addition to the amounts which they would respectively hold if and when the plan should have been carried out as proposed."

The further suggestions of the government included the following:

That in the distribution of the properties and businesses now held by the combination pursuant to the plan of dissolution, the corporation shall be allowed to acquire property, tangible or intangible, which would invest it with as much as 40 per cent. in volume or in value of any particular line of tobacco business.

That all contracts, any way restraining the right of any company or individual in the combination to buy, manufacture or sell tobacco or its products should be rescinded by the

TURKS HAVE RECAPTURED PART OF TRIPOLI CITY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The Turkish Embassy received unofficial dispatches today confirming reports that Turkish troops have recaptured part of the city of Tripoli. These messages came indirectly and do not represent an official Turkish statement on the subject. The State department received a message from Consul John Q. Wood at Tripoli, stating that Italian forces have not treated Arabs as severely as reports have indicated.

ITALIAN NOBILITY GIVE THEIR BLOOD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ROME, Oct. 30.—The Italian nobility, like the people, are paying tribute in blood in the African conquest. Word has reached here of the death in action at Horns, Tripoli, of Duke Riccardo Gradol Lante del Rovere, a Lieutenant in the navy, and of the serious wounded of Count Pompeo di Campello, a Lieutenant of cavalry and gentleman in waiting to the King.

Both officers had many friends among Americans and were well known as sportsmen, the Duke as an exponent of tennis, and Count di Campello as master of foxhounds.

SEARCH FOR ARABS STILL CONTINUED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TRIPOLI, Oct. 28, via Malta Oct. 30.—The search for Arabs still continues and the summary slaughter is not yet ended. Nothing more deplorable than the massacres at Tripoli have been witnessed in a war for many years. The Arabs caught were shot in masses. For three days this continued. A great number of women perished. Scarcely any of the large native population escaped.

For three days the Italians have been systematically slaughtering Arabs in the residential oasis outside the city. Every Arab met has been shot down without trial. Many women late in the day by Felix H. Levy, in addition to that filed jointly by himself and Mr. Brandis from the National Cigar Leaf Association and the other concerns. In this he said:

"It cannot be doubted that if the principals of the joint or municipal stock ownership be approved by the court the twenty-nine individual owners and their satellites will have ample opportunity by covert means to effect a unified control of all the constituent companies. The likelihood that they will seek to exercise such control and the deceptive devices to which they probably will resort in order to do so will be better understood by an examination of their past conduct as shown by the record in this case. In the light of their past conduct it is safe to assume that no scruples of conscience or moral restraint will withhold them from a repetition of similar acts."

LEDYARD IN DEFENSE.

Attorney Ledyard described in detail the American Tobacco Company's proposal to divide the trusts' interests into four companies, no one of them to have any interest by way of ownership of stock or otherwise in any of the others.

Mr. Ledyard endeavored to convince the court that the reorganization proposal would be effective and legal by distributing dividends to the stockholders entitled thereto, seeing of the American Tobacco Company by the formation of new companies and selling them to a substantial part of the business of the defendant company in return for securities of the new companies, and by the sale of property and business now in the combination to be distributed in the employment of a common agent for the purchase of tobacco leaf; or by transferring to and vesting in any of the corporations forming which any of the properties and businesses now in the combination are to be distributed, and part of the stock of the United Cigar Stores Company."

TUESDAY MORNING.

TO RECLAIM WASH LANDS.

Animated Hearings Before County Supervisors.

Contracts Awarded for San Antonio District.

Rubio-Canyon Water to Go Down Sierra Bonita.

The storm water protection district propositions had their hearing yesterday at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors, practically the whole day given over to the consideration of them. Substantial progress was made.

Several hundred residents and land owners from the neighborhood of Duarito, Monrovia and El Monte packed the meeting room of the Supervisors at the morning session to protest against the completion of San Gabriel District No. 1, designed to remove from overflow and destruction thousands of acres of land in the head of the San Gabriel Valley.

Most of them are agreed that some sort of protection is necessary, but those who live on high ground, out of reach of the waters that rush down from the mountains, do not seem to believe that they are in a manner responsible for some of the damage, and accordingly object to being included in the district. Others desire that it is an improvement, just as for small a stretch of territory, while many land owners in the breast of the valley contend that it will mean inundation of their land.

One protestor declared that the river is now known as the West San Gabriel River, the first created by a little irrigating ditch, which a ranchman dug to irrigate his corn. It gradually grew in width and depth, until it entirely turned the river from what is now known as the east channel, and they are contending that any improvement is made, the river should be turned back into its original course.

"There was never any trouble," he said, "until that fellow dug his irrigating ditch, and the same thing is liable to occur again at any moment, after the west branch of the river is improved, if some other fellow should dig a ditch."

Said another protestor: "Some of these petitioners bought land for a sum, up there by the Peck ranch, and they now tell us we shall not turn the river back. We have been here since the Almighty put it and intended it to be. I don't object to paying just dues for any purpose, but I get not the slightest benefit, and I don't feel like being drawn in for the gratification of a few fellows who think they can profit by it."

An El Monte man declared that the ten men who signed the original petition asking for the formation of the district, represent less than 150 people, while the men I represent own more than 10,000 acres.

Another asserted that it is not a wise proposition, but one for the improvement of private property for the advantage of a few.

GOVERNMENT MAY HELP.

We hope to receive aid from the government," chairman Pridham said, "a great deal of this water comes down from the Forest Reserve, and we together with the water that flows down your land is responsible for all the damage."

Engineer Olmsted poured oil on the turbulent tide by saying that the tax will be levied only in proportion to the benefit received.

"If you are on the hills," he said, "you will not be appreciably taxed; those who are benefited most will have to pay the bulk of the expense. The money, the State and the government will help bear the burden."

A representative from the lower end of the proposed district said that his privately owned 1900 last year had to be sold to control the situation for him, but part of it is now rented out, and there is not a single protestant in that part of the district, and they are more than satisfied to let the supervisors take it in hand.

In much of the talk there was an absence of criticism of the Supervisors, which led Chairman Pridham to remark:

"We think the Supervisors should be given credit with acting in good faith, and we will not stand for any repetition that will confiscate your property."

The final hearing was fixed for one month from today, so that it may be in accordance with the regular work of the board, when there will probably be some definite information from the engineers. The objections to the disincorporation seem to think that it was to be a rate assessment per acre, instead of according to the benefits received.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Contracts were awarded for the construction work in the San Antonio Protection District, as follows: Grading, $10,000; paving, $10,000; and $10,000 for the new Vaginal Sprayer. The new Vaginal Sprayer will be installed in the new building, which is to be completed in time for the opening of the new hospital.

The differences between Kinney and Jones had their beginning in 1907. Before they had progressed far, a campaign was instituted by Kinney to disincorporate Ocean Park. It was his declaration that the Jones faction had control of the city government and was legislating through its Council to injure his interests.

The head had its climax in a serial story under the caption of "A Tale of Two Cities," admittedly written by Kinney, it was asserted by the opposition, and published in the Venice Vanguard.

The story stirred up a hornet's nest in Venice and Ocean Park politics and a short time later suits for damages were filed on both sides. The suit instituted by the Jones faction against Kinney and his stalwarts, and the Outlook Company, which published the Vanguard. More than $100,000 damages were demanded.

This was the suit stated and Kinney maintained that a big damage action, charging the impaneling of his amusement interests by the alleged deliberate diversion of city sewage, into the ocean at a point near his property.

But one of the actions by Jones came to trial. This was last spring and judgment was returned for Kinney. The latter was represented by Attorneys John D. Pope and R. C. Gortner, who were in court yesterday in connection with the dismissal of the various actions.

The Jones-Kinney feud began to die out, a split has developed in the faction headed by the former. A. R. Frisher, owner of the Fraser Mill-Dollar Pier at Ocean Park and one of Jones' erstwhile stalwarts, recently sued Jones for alleged interference with Frisher's property.

WATSON TAKEN AGAIN.

Money Lender Charged With Having Buncoced Half-Dozen Persons Out of Thirteen Hundred Dollars.

John W. Watson, money lender with offices in the Currier building, was arrested yesterday on the charge of having feloniously embezzled $1300. He was arraigned before Township Justice Forbes and his preliminary examination set for November 7. Watson is out on bail charged with other similar manipulations, and for that reason no bail was fixed in this case.

The complaint filed against Watson yesterday was sworn to by Henry Colton, who alleges that Watson buncoced Colton, Frank and Ruth Brown, A. and Ollithree Thelanders, and Minnie E. Blighon out of $1300. The money, according to the complaint, was entrusted to Watson by Colton, the Thelanders and Browns. According to the complaint, Watson failed to make and return for the money, despite repeated demands of his client. The money, it is alleged, was to have been invested in local realty.

The former transactions of Watson which were held sufficiently questionable to warrant embezzlement complaints against him, involved promissory notes.

Troubled Retrospect.

HARKS BACK TO FORMER SORROWS.

ADAM UNDERWOOD SEEKS THE RELIEF OF BANKRUPTCY.

Ex-Secretary of Former Senator Clark Suffers Still from Marital Wreck of Finances Which Made Him and Angelina Wife Unpleasantly Prominent in Courts.

Adam Underwood, formerly private secretary to ex-Senator Clark, and whose marital troubles were conspicuous in the Superior Court of this country a year ago, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. His assets are scheduled at $3500, and his liabilities at $12,100. Most of the latter are unsecured. One item of thirty shares of the First National Bank of Tonopah is pledged to ex-Senator Clark for a loan. Underwood says in his petition that he is an oil-lamp broker.

Among the creditors represented are the ex-Senator, who loaned Underwood $4500, for the payment of which the bank stock is hypothecated; C. K. Cole, No. 32 Rose street, New York, who advanced $2500 which Underwood has pledged by delivering up a life insurance policy for $2500; J. Ross Clark, a brother of the ex-Senator, $7000.

Most of the other debts, it is alleged, were made by Mrs. Adeline Underwood, whose marriage to the petitioner was annulled by order of Judge Houser. In this list of items is the unpaid balance of $250 on a fashionable coat that figured in the announcement proceedings, and a score of other bills that under the order of the court Underwood was made responsible for.

The case brought by Underwood against his wife was one of the most sensational in recent years in the local court. The couple were married in San Francisco, following a chance acquaintance on an overland train, when Underwood was on his way to Washington City, and the woman was en route for New York on a pleasure trip. It was brought out in evidence that both married under grave misapprehensions as to the wealth possessed by the other. The trouble between them was largely of a financial nature.

The wife, Adeline Underwood, whose marriage to the petitioner was annulled by order of Judge Houser, in this list of items is the unpaid balance of $250 on a fashionable coat that figured in the announcement proceedings, and a score of other bills that under the order of the court Underwood was made responsible for.

The case brought by Underwood against his wife was one of the most sensational in recent years in the local court. The couple were married in San Francisco, following a chance acquaintance on an overland train, when Underwood was on his way to Washington City, and the woman was en route for New York on a pleasure trip.

The second Thursday, and the third is scheduled for December 5.

The connections have been built and the narrow gauge tracks of the Redondo line standardized for the purpose of connecting Redondo with the line of Watts and Athene to the Pacific Electric station at Sixth and Spring streets. The Pacific Electric wants to turn the ends of the Redondo line north of Homeward, Athens and Hawthorne, over to the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, and operate the new Redondo cut-off. This will cut the time from Los Angeles to Redondo to fifteen minutes.

It will not affect the freight service to Gardena and other points and will insure faster delivery. It will allow complete connection with the other parts of the Pacific Electric system at the transfer point, in the Pacific Electric building, and will aid in relieving the congestion at several downtown points, including the north of Spring street. It will also permit the city street car lines to give transfers to all yellow cars, and permit additional cars to the Monica avenue line if the Board of Public Utilities will give the city company permission to install a curve at Fourth and Spring streets and at Jefferson and Grand.

The city company proposes to operate cars north on Grand avenue from Jefferson to Main, and north on Main to Broadway to Fourth thence around the Angelus Hotel corner and south on Spring street. The Angelus Hotel now uses the dead track on Fourth as a car stand and is objecting to the building of the new line. The Jefferson and Grand avenue curve is not in the concession at Seventh and Broadway will not be helped, as the cars will have to operate north of Grand avenue, instead of on Main, and extra cars, both on Grand and Main, cannot be added.

The demand of the residents of the Imperial Valley is for a reduction of freight rates, both to and from Los Angeles.

AMUSEMENT RIVALS WITHDRAW IMPENDING SUITS.

Aftermath of Campaign to Disincorporate City of Ocean Park Is Dismissal of Actions Brought to Secure Damages Aggregating Nearly Quarter-Million.

Papers were filed yesterday by attorneys for Abbot Kinney and George M. Jones, amusement rivals of Venice and Ocean Park, dismissing suits between the two and their cohorts, in which damages of nearly $250,000 were demanded.

The differences between Kinney and Jones had their beginning in 1907. Before they had progressed far, a campaign was instituted by Kinney to disincorporate Ocean Park. It was his declaration that the Jones faction had control of the city government and was legislating through its Council to injure his interests.

The head had its climax in a serial story under the caption of "A Tale of Two Cities," admittedly written by Kinney, it was asserted by the opposition, and published in the Venice Vanguard.

The story stirred up a hornet's nest in Venice and Ocean Park politics and a short time later suits for damages were filed on both sides. The suit instituted by the Jones faction against Kinney and his stalwarts, and the Outlook Company, which published the Vanguard. More than $100,000 damages were demanded.

This was the suit stated and Kinney maintained that a big damage action, charging the impaneling of his amusement interests by the alleged deliberate diversion of city sewage, into the ocean at a point near his property.

But one of the actions by Jones came to trial. This was last spring and judgment was returned for Kinney. The latter was represented by Attorneys John D. Pope and R. C. Gortner, who were in court yesterday in connection with the dismissal of the various actions.

SHARP FIGHT; BOTH MAY WIN.

Compromise May Settle Box Canyon Dispute.

Espec to Get Line and the Ranchers Their Dam.

Railroad Commission to Take Up Big Questions.

There is a talk of a compromise in the disputed question of the disposition of the famous Box Canyon site in Arizona, in which the issue is for possession between ranch owners seeking to develop an irrigation project, and the Southern Pacific Railroad, which wants a right of way for a new main line between Yuma and Bowie.

The compromise proposition may be put up to Samuel Adams, First Assistant Secretary of the Interior, who is in Los Angeles for one of a series of hearings in connection with the contention.

The compromise agreement may give the ranchers the water they want and the railroad the desired right of way. Engineers have prepared reports to show that the plan is feasible, provided the railroad will consent to grade line slightly higher than the one hitherto planned.

The ranchers at Florence and other points that would be benefited by the construction of a dam seek to impound sufficient water to irrigate in the neighborhood of 75,000 acres. A delegation of land owners, including J. L. Mills, F. A. Urban, M. H. Sinclair and F. E. Woodruff, went to Phoenix yesterday at the Hotel Alexandria seeking a hearing with Secretary Adams. They will probably be heard today, after which the railroads and other interests will get the ear of the day.

The dispute comes within the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior by reason of the fact that much of the land is used for an irrigation dam project is included in the San Carlos Indian Reservation.

Two weeks ago The Times published the plans of the Southern Pacific, showing that the construction of the line through the Salt River Valley, from Yuma, by way of Hassayampa, Phoenix, Wickenman and rejoining the main line at Bowie, would reduce operating expenses, besides putting Phoenix on the main line. A party of officials of the Southern Pacific, including H. V. Platt, general superintendent of the southern district, spent a few hours in Bowie Sunday, presumably in connection with the plan for the new short line.

WOULD USE TRACKS ON OLD REDONDO LINE.

Three important propositions are pending before the State Board of Railroad Commissioners. One is the application for a rehearing in the recent reduction of freight rates by the common sentiment of gratitude, at some large auditoriums, and there give fitting expression in patriotic oration, oration and doxology, or doctrinal word and song, to the significance of the day.

It seems to me that it would mark a great step forward if on the 20th day of next month, one of our large auditoriums were to be filled with the people of Los Angeles, all oblivious to the time being of the political party that directs them, to express only of the fact that they are all children of God, citizens of this great and growing city, impelled by the common sentiment of gratitude to pour out their hearts to the universal Father, if on the platform one or several of the strong, eloquent, broad-minded speakers be brought to the assembly the merits of the day acceptable to all, profitable to all, if carefully selected songs were to be rendered by some of the talented singers, which our city so abundantly boasts, and if the prayer and the singing that day a unanimous.

This would be Thanksgiving Day in the true American spirit, a Thanksgiving Day that would justify the thousand-voiced Hallelujah, and that would have a sanctifying influence upon the congregation as they gather on the following Sabbath in weekly devotion in their houses of worship to their God, their leaders and their religious consciousness.

The connections have been built and the narrow gauge tracks of the Redondo line standardized for the purpose of connecting Redondo with the line of Watts and Athene to the Pacific Electric station at Sixth and Spring streets. The Pacific Electric wants to turn the ends of the Redondo line north of Homeward, Athens and Hawthorne, over to the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, and operate the new Redondo cut-off. This will cut the time from Los Angeles to Redondo to fifteen minutes.

It will also permit the city street car lines to give transfers to all yellow cars, and permit additional cars to the Monica avenue line if the Board of Public Utilities will give the city company permission to install a curve at Fourth and Spring streets and at Jefferson and Grand.

The city company proposes to operate cars north on Grand avenue from Jefferson to Main, and north on Main to Broadway to Fourth thence around the Angelus Hotel corner and south on Spring street. The Angelus Hotel now uses the dead track on Fourth as a car stand and is objecting to the building of the new line. The Jefferson and Grand avenue curve is not in the concession at Seventh and Broadway will not be helped, as the cars will have to operate north of Grand avenue, instead of on Main, and extra cars, both on Grand and Main, cannot be added.

The demand of the residents of the Imperial Valley is for a reduction of freight rates, both to and from Los Angeles.

WALTER WALKER.

NO PLACE FOR HER?

Complaint was made to Deputy Attorney Alexander yesterday by Probation Officer Reeve of San Diego, that she was unable to secure lodgings for Cora Lantz, a 19-year-old girl, at either the Detention Home or the Door of Hope. The matter is being investigated by Officer McLaughlin of the Humane Society. According to Mrs. Reeve she arrived yesterday morning from San Diego with the Lantz girl, who is the prosecuting witness in a white-slave case before Judge McCormick. She applied for lodgings for her charge at the Detention Home and was informed she alleged, that the institution did not have any vacancies.

The inference, Thomas says, is plain: unable to rescue and believing Patrick Henry that death is preferable to loss of liberty, she had deliberately poisoned her child. The berry was taken from the crop of the young bird and was identified as a well-known poisonous variety.

Orders Policemen to Watch Polls Closely and Also Prevent All Sale of Liquor.

In a order issued yesterday afternoon Chief Sebastian instructed all policemen assigned to beats to visit the polls as often as possible to see that the election laws are strictly observed.

Notice was also posted that the law requires all places where liquor is sold, either at retail or wholesale, closed between 6 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock in the evening, and police officers were instructed to see that the law is enforced. It was also ordered that under the law, and the chief said the selling of liquor even with meals will not be permitted.

Today not being a general election day, the police courts will be open as usual.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Collie, Cholera, and Diarrhea Remedy is based on the fact that it has been used in the treatment of the various stomach diseases.

The Jones-Kinney feud began to die out, a split has developed in the faction headed by the former.

A. R. Frisher, owner of the Fraser Mill-Dollar Pier at Ocean Park and one of Jones' erstwhile stalwarts, recently sued Jones for alleged interference with Frisher's property.

But one of the actions by Jones came to trial. This was last spring and judgment was returned for Kinney.

The latter was represented by Attorneys John D. Pope and R. C. Gortner, who were in court yesterday in connection with the dismissal of the various actions.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

Pasadena. WILL INSPECT OWENS RIVER.

Pasadena Water Commission to View New System.

Tree Inspectors Arouse the Anger of a Woman.

Mayor Denies that He Is Tired of Job.

(Office of The Times, 82 S. Fair Oaks Ave.)
PASADENA, Oct. 31.—As soon as a time can be selected that is satisfactory to all members, the City Water Commission will make an inspection of the Owens River system. This was definitely decided yesterday afternoon at a meeting held at the office of Mayor Thum.

While the members say that at the meeting nothing of especial significance was accomplished in regard to the water situation, and while they also declare that Los Angeles has as yet made no definite proposition concerning Owens River water, it was nevertheless thought wise that the commissioners should post themselves thoroughly upon the subject. This, they say, is the only reason for the proposed investigation.

No date was set. The commissioners left that to be determined at another session.

"I can't say when the trip will be made," said Mayor Thum last night, "but probably before the end of the year. The commissioners want to see what the Owens River system is like."

Part of the time of the meeting was taken up with organization. The commission was appointed by Mayor Thum a short time ago and until yesterday no arrangements had been made by the semi-annual meeting of their respective terms shall expire.

The commission is now a permanent factor of the city's government. It was decided that one new member shall be elected each year. The members drew for terms, the result of the drawing was as follows:

George F. Kermaghian, one year; T. D. Allin, two; J. M. Harvey, three, and Fred E. Wilcox, four.

LOCAL DELEGATE NAMED.

The appointment at the recent meeting of the League of California Municipalities in Santa Barbara of City Attorney Carr as a member of the Committee on Franchises may bring Pasadena into the lime-light this winter.

The creation of this committee was one of the most important steps taken by the league. City Attorney Long of San Francisco, and Stephen Long of Long Beach, also were named, among others.

Much of the time of the convention was spent in discussing the matter of extension of franchises, and the probability that changes in the State franchise laws will be attempted at the coming session of the Legislature. It was the sense of the convention that if such were the case, it would be of great importance that a committee could closely whatever might be done. This committee was appointed to look to the protection of all California municipalities in case the indeterminate franchise system is brought up.

TREE MEN CENSURED.

That Los Angeles county employees engaged in spraying trees on the North Side have been more interested in "condemning and collecting" than in killing the scale, is a charge that Mrs. Sarah Ware Whitney, of No. 1562 North Raymond avenue, made at yesterday morning's session of the City Commissioners. She appeared with W. S. Harbert to protest against the manner in which the work is being performed.

A. C. Smith, county horticultural inspector, told of the other side of the differences that exist, and an altercation ensued which consumed considerable time. The commissioners finally brought it to a close by referring the whole matter to City Attorney Carr and Harbert for settlement.

The commissioners voted to request the City Council when it convenes today to advertise for bids for a motor fire engine and hose wagon. The new apparatus, if secured, will be housed at the Mentor avenue station.

NOT TIRED OF JOB.

A report current in the city yesterday that Mayor Thum will not be a candidate for re-election because he has grown tired of the Mayoralty business was vigorously denied by the city's chief executive last night.

"I am not tired of being Mayor at all," we said. "I shall not be a candidate for another term, simply because other work will prevent me from doing it. There are many more interested in it. Were it possible for me to do so, I would like to keep running for the office all my life, if the people wanted me to."

WANTS LONGER FRANCHISE.

A request for a thirty-year franchise, instead of one run for twenty years in connection with the proposed extension of the Washington street car line was made by the Pacific Electric Railroad yesterday.

Two of the P. E. officials, Paul Smith and J. McMillan, held a conference with Mayor Thum yesterday afternoon. J. W. Goodwin, dean of the Nazarene University, which will be benefited by the extension line, was also present.

That the line will probably not become a paid-in investment for electrical cars and that other franchises in the same section of the city which the railroad holds, run for that period of time, were the reasons advanced in support of the request. The matter will be submitted to the City Council today.

ANTE-NUPITAL DINNER.

terian Church.

The table was ornamented with bride's roses and the color scheme of white and green was carried out in the dining-room and elsewhere by quantities of long-stemmed white chrysanthemums. Favors of tiny wedding bells with orange blossoms and place cards bearing orange flowers added to the pretty bridal effect.

Covers were laid for the bridal party, including Dr. and Mrs. Henry Owen Eversole, who will act as best man and maid of honor; the Misses Anna West of Atlanta, Georgia, and Virginia Count of Boston, Lucy Clark of St. James Park, Los Angeles, who will appear as bridesmaids; Messrs. Angeleno Clash With Bluecoated Transportation Man in South Pasadena and Is Fired by Court.

SOUTH PASADENA, Oct. 30.—A jury in Justice Glover's court, after a trial which lasted all day, found W. M. Davis, No. 141 East Avenue 48, Los Angeles, guilty of disturbing the peace on September 28. The court pronounced sentence of $5, or five days in jail, and a $50 fine. Appeal may be taken by the defendant.

Mr. Davis boarded a car in Pasadena, which he asserted the conductor told him was a through car. He presented a return ticket, and the portion for the through trip was collected.

When asked if he was a passenger, the conductor requested the passenger to board the Mission street car.

Davis stated he asked for a transfer, but in the confusion failed to get it.

The conductor on the Mission street car insisted on his paying an additional fare in alternate following.

He then insisted on his being ejected from the car at Prospect avenue, and being arrested at the instance of the conductor, who asserted he used abusive language.

NOT TIRED OF JOB.

A report current in the city yesterday that Mayor Thum will not be a candidate for re-election because he has grown tired of the Mayoralty business was vigorously denied by the city's chief executive last night.

"I am not tired of being Mayor at all," we said. "I shall not be a candidate for another term, simply because other work will prevent me from doing it. There are many more interested in it. Were it possible for me to do so, I would like to keep running for the office all my life, if the people wanted me to."

Fresh as a New Laid Egg

Many are the claims for freshness made in behalf of cooking fats. Just as with eggs, we have "fresh," "strictly fresh" and "guaranteed fresh" eggs, so it is with cooking fats; some are "fresh," others "fresher," but only one is, or can truthfully be, "guaranteed fresh" and that is Cottolene.

Packed in patent air-tight pails there is no chance for dust or odors to come in contact with Cottolene, and that is the reason it keeps, indefinitely, fresh and sweet as the day it was packed.

Cottolene is a pure, wholesome vegetable-oil, cooking fat, packed with utmost cleanliness and care.

ANGELINOS IN JAIL.

Joseph Firmin, Charles Lavine and Robert Epstein of Los Angeles, are in the Orange County Jail and will have to explain how they came into possession of nineteen sacks of walnuts belonging to Henry Federer of this vicinity. The walnuts were stolen on the night of October 25. The nuts were in possession of the Los Angeles men, who claimed they bought them from a Mexican.

In spite of all the activity of the year in building, and the promise of much building this fall and winter, the fact remains that the city is suffering from a house famine. Not available rooms or apartments available for rental of any kind. Another condition has prevailed for more than a year. The summer months, during which California towns are nearly always able to offer many vacant houses, saw a change in the situation in Anaheim. As a matter of fact, the scarcity of houses and the increase in demand were more acute during the summer months than during the winter, and the present fall month finds the demand still greater. At least thirty new modern houses could be rented at once in this city if available. This situation is probably due in part to the large number of people coming here for employment in the sugar industry.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Godfrey Stock has just finished the harvest of a grape crop on his ten-acre vineyard, yielding a total of fifty tons, which he sold at $15 per ton. The crop was grown without irrigation and the fruit was rich in sugar, firm and remarkably free from disease. This is the second year that Stock has refrained from watering his vineyard and his vines are in a healthy, flourishing condition, and the quality of the fruit would be hard to excel.

Another evidence of the productivity of the Anaheim soil is demonstrated in a mammoth pumpkin, weighing 200 pounds, raised by Charles Schneider on his ranch, just east of the city limits.

The famous Orange county celery, which is grown in the peat lands, is being harvested and shipped this week, this being the first of the crisp product sent out this season. The total acreage planted this season is twelve thousand, less than half of last year, but the quality of the crop is probably the best grown for several years, as the weather conditions were exceptionally favorable.

A resident of La Habra is keeping tab as to the observance of the eight-hour law and has written an anonymous letter to Dist-Atty. West urging him to take immediate action in putting the law in force.

FILES SUIT.

Charles Grimes today filed suit against the Santa Fe, to recover $2000 alleged to have been the lost Gloucester suffered in a fire which destroyed his home at summer. He claims the fire was started along the railroad right of way, by a spark from a locomotive, and that the company was negligent in allowing dry grass to accumulate along its right of way, the flames sweeping along the grass to the Grimes residence.

BALLOONIST DISAPPOINTED.

Fifty or more taxpayers, said to include practically all the business of the city, are up in arms over the action of the City Trustees in setting aside $300 toward the purchase of a site for a City Park, and they declare that they will never allow the money to be spent in that way, at present, however, the setting aside of money for a city hall is the only point that any should be set aside for public improvements at this time.

The San Luis Rey County Telephone Company, at its annual meeting, Saturday, decided to extend the line a couple of miles to Gopher Canyon. The following directors were elected: Theodore W. Wernerman, Edmund Edmonds, D. E. Jones, E. Ronse and B. F. Libby. Mr. Libby was elected president and Mr. Edmundson secretary.

STREET WORK COMPLETED.

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 30.—Commercial pavement, 600 feet in length and ninety-nine feet wide, has just been completed by the Star Cement Company of this city, on Seventh street, extending across eleven tracks of the Espee and Santa Fe companies.

This is the first piece of macadam and oil work to be completed in the city, and is rated by Street Superintendent as a first-class job in every particular. A demonstration of the smoothness of the work was made this afternoon.

An auto driven at high speed went over the tracks with no perceptible jolting, showing that the improvement was all that could be desired. Now an effort is to be made by the Council to have the paving continued and the property owners adjacent to have the Eighth-street crossing similarly macadamized and oiled.

NEW RAILROAD LAW IS UPHELD.

San Bernardino Jurist Says Intent Is Plain.

Matter of Legal Crew Is the Point at Issue.

Man Is Shot and Killed by an Unknown Mexican.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 30.—The "full crew" law, enacted by the last Legislature, was upheld today by Judge F. E. Oster, in a lengthy decision handed down in the case of the people against the Santa Fe Railroad Company. The railroad was cited for violation of the law in operating a train of three-passenger coaches and a baggage car, between Redlands and Los Angeles, manned by only one brakeman.

The whole controversy turned on the words "passenger coaches or cars," which occur in the second proviso of Section I of the new law. The railroad insisted that the word "passenger" should be construed as limiting and qualifying both nouns, just as though the law read "passenger coaches or passenger cars." The law governing the number of brakemen on a train by the number of passenger cars which the train consists.

CRITICISM IS MADE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Criticism of the activity of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States was made in a report adopted last night by the Fall Council of the General Conference Committee of Seventh Day Adventists. What was termed "widespread apostasy," from Protestantism, was also considered in the following terms:

"We sincerely regret that widespread apostasy from these principles of truth which we vindicated at such cost in the reformation of the sixteenth century and we greatly deplore the fact that this apostasy gives so much plausibility to the oft-repeated claim of the Roman hierarchy that Protestantism is dead and that in Romanism alone does Christianity survive."

KILLED BY STRANGER.

Santana Avila was shot and killed last night by an unknown Mexican, on Kingman street, west of Mt. Vernon. The deceased was accompanying his wife from the home of a friend where they had been visiting. He was passing the stranger, whom he accosted, calling him Juan. "My name is not Juan," replied the stranger. To this the deceased inquired the man's name, to which the stranger responded, "I am Juan." The man, however, exclaiming, "I'm as good as any man," Avila died soon after the shooting. When his wife saw the smoke curling up from the stranger's revolver, she threw a shawl over her eyes, thus failing to get any description of the assailant.

BERGER'S PLAN.

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Oct. 31.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Congressman Victor L. Berger announced yesterday that he would introduce a bill at the next session of Congress to repeal the Sherman anti-trust act and substitute a law providing that wherever a pool, a combine or a trust controls more than 60 per cent of the total output in any industry, the government shall take the concern over, pay the actual value in bonds and manage the business for the benefit of all the people. Modern business cannot be made to conform to the Sherman act and exist, according to Congressman Berger.

THE CUMMING CASE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] The State's Attorney in the Nineteenth Ward Bank introduced in evidence yesterday an agreement entered into by Andrew Carnegie and the directors of the Carnegie Trust Company, whereby the former ironmaster loaned Cummins and his associates $2,100,000 worth of United States Steel Corporation's securities. This loan was made after O. H. Cheney, then Superintendent of Banks, had ordered the trust company to liquidate four note loans aggregating $2,400,000 guaranteed by the directors, which as Mr. Cheney subsequently testified yesterday, he had objected to. The agreement showed that Mr. Carnegie had received in return shares of stock in various Cummins concerns estimated to be worth $5,000,000, together with a guarantee by George B. Crabb, a former associate of Cummins and director of the Carnegie Trust Company, that Mr. Carnegie would get back his securities.

NEEDS ANOTHER SURETY.

Woman Who Goes Bond for Alleged Ticket Scalper Is Disqualified and He Spends Night in Jail.

Charles L. Jordan, a former railway ticket broker, who will be placed on trial in the United States District Court, November 7, on the charge of having used the mail for the purpose of promoting a fraud, was a prisoner at the office of the United States Marshal yesterday.

One of his bondsmen, Mrs. Brule, No. 320 West Fifth street, who agreed to mortgage some of her property, was declared not eligible to remain on the bond, and it was necessary for Jordan to get another surety, with Mrs. Hester T. Griffith of Ocean Park, who had qualified, with Mrs. Brule, when Jordan was arrested last spring. He was taken to the County Jail for the night, and will continue the quest for a bondsmen today.

When the case of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway against Jordan was called for trial yesterday in the United States Circuit Court, Attorney Van Cott, representing the railroad, asked that the case be postponed for two weeks, asserting that Jordan could not be found. Just about that time Jordan appeared with his wife and Mrs. Brule.

Jordan was indicted by the United State grand jury January 2, 1911, on the charge that he had been scalping railroad excursion tickets and using the mails to further his scheme.

BELIEVES KILLING OF BOGGS
WAS DELIBERATE.Inquest Falls to Show Cause for Shooting and Witnesses Are Unable to Furnish Solution—Arraignment of Slayer Today—Arrival of Widow Awaited.Frank Minimatsu, the Japanese janitor employed by the Selig Polygraph Company at the studio in Edendale, was formally held responsible for the murder of Francis Boggs, Cameraman, by a Coroner's jury yesterday.

After the inquest the Japanese was taken back to the Central Police Station and locked up. He will be arraigned in Police Court today on a murder charge.

The witnesses called at the inquest were J. L. McGee, business manager for the company; N. D. L. Scott, architect; F. M. Huntley, stage director; O. F. Greilkans, who has charge of the animals used in making pictures; P. W. Sanchi, an actor, and Patrolman Hagenbaugh. Dr. George W. Campbell reported the result of his autopsy showing that Boggs's body had several bullet holes in vulnerable parts.

The jury expressed its opinion that the case was one of deliberate murder. There were no developments in the inquest to show a cause for the crime.

Funeral arrangements will be made as soon as Mrs. Boggs arrives from Chicago.

UTAH'S IRON MINES.

Prominent Mining Man Here Says Industry Promises Large Results Industrially for the State.

David Keith of Salt Lake City, who was a member of the Legislature when Utah was admitted as a State, arrived here yesterday with his wife.

Keith is highly interested in Utah's mineral industries, having large holdings in the Silver King mine and others.

He stated yesterday that soon the iron mines of Utah will be developed and that it will mean for the State the establishment of smelters and iron foundries. There is plenty of coal, and considerable development in gold, silver and copper mining.

Speaking politically Keith said that he thought Taft would carry Utah and that he will be renominated and reelected. There is not much heard of La Follette. On the Democratic side Wilson and Woodrow are considerably discounted.

Trips to this Coast, he said, "I find nowhere any city as clean as Los Angeles. It has a great future, it seems to have made great jumps every visit I make here. I have some investments here, and am now on business and pleasure combined."

WITHDRAWS THE SUIT.

In the United States Circuit Court yesterday, the bill of the Southern California Edison Company against the city of Santa Ana for the removal of the authorities of that municipality from enforcing an ordinance regulating the electric light rate, was withdrawn. It was stated that since the filing of the bill the City Council of Santa Ana has passed an ordinance that corrects the alleged unfairness of the first instrument.

Our special easy payment plan on Talking Machines is the most liberal offered. SUMMARY OF THE DAY.
Whether this city shall be "wet" or "dry" the voters will be called upon once more to decide, for a petition was filed yesterday which has sufficient signatures to invoke the initiative.

At the City Hall.

HERE'S ONE JOB GOING BEGGING.

NO ONE IS ELIGIBLE FOR AN IMPORTANT PLACE.

Civil Service Commission Has Held Examinations for Superintendent of Fire Alarm and Police Telegraph, but None Has Passed—Reinstatement Asked.

When J. C. Perry, former superintendent of fire alarm and police telegraph, renewed his effort to be reinstated yesterday at the session of the Fire Commission, attention was drawn to the fact that for some reason apparently no one wants the place except Perry. At any rate, the civil service examination has not been passed successfully by anyone. Several examinations have been held.

Perry was removed early in the year. He applied for his reinstatement July 17, and July 24 Chief Eley reported against his application, but no action was taken at the time. Later it was decided to let the application lie on the table until Eley should return from his eastern trip.

Yesterday Eley attended the first meeting of the commission since his return and the question of Perry's reappointment was passed up to him.

The office pays $150 a month. One man of all who have taken the examinations for the place has very nearly passed. He took the test twice. The first time he was allowed 70 per cent for experience, but on his second attempt it was decided that the first rating was too high and it was cut to 55 per cent.

WHAT PARKS COST. COMMISSIONERS' ESTIMATES.

Park improvements will not require any such sum as $2,000,000 or $5,000,000. Chairman Silent of the Park Commission announced at the session of the board yesterday, and the other members agreed with him. The commission, it was admitted, would require $1,500,000 to carry out its projects but not immediately.

This was in answer to a statement made in the City Council as to the alleged demands of the commission.

The commissioners will be present next Saturday night at the public meeting in the Auditorium when Commissioner Lippincott is to explain the plans for Arroyo Seco Park and there the policy of the board will be stated.

It is proposed to create sentiment in favor of parks and boulevards as a first step, then the adoption of charter amendments will be sought to give more power to the commission, and finally to adopt a general definite policy for the future development of the park boulevards.

UP TO RAILWAY. SAN PEDRO STREET PLANS.

The next step in the municipal terminal railway project in the effort to carry so much of the Arnold report into execution as will relieve the congestion on Main street will be for the Board of Public Utilities to interview the Pacific Electric Railway Company and find out what the company will consent to build the road for and what conditions it will accept.

The City Attorney is preparing a report on the subject in which he will go into details and which will be presented at the session of the Council today.

Chairman Washburn, at the meeting of the Finance Committee yesterday afternoon, told a committee of residents of San Pedro street that the port which will be made to the Council by the committee, will favor this plan. The Pacific Electric will be invited to build under an indemnity franchise on the blocks from south to Alvarado street on San Pedro, and the franchise must contain provisions for local traffic as well as through traffic.

The committee of San Pedro residents declared that they would not be satisfied unless the company is compelled to take care of the yellow cars and transfer privilege is accorded. Washburn said that was a matter for them to take up later with the railway company themselves.

Lighting Fountain. The fountain in Central Park is to be a thing of beauty at night, if the San Pedro residents of the Council will consent to an appropriation of $40 to be asked for at once by the Park Commission. A Trueworth of San Francisco, who is here on a vacation has offered to do the work of installation free. He is well known in the North, where he has been in charge of the lighting equipment of great public spectacles. He proposes to fasten the lamps beneath the rim of the fountain, wiring under the shrubbery.

City Hall Notes. All offices at the City Hall will be open today, as it is not a legal holiday. The City Council will hold its regular weekly meeting, but it is expected that it will be brief, as those members who are candidates for re-election will be extremely busy.

COURTHOUSE NOTES. BREVIETES MISCELLANEOUS. SENT TO JAIL. "I am innocent of this charge," exclaimed Trinidad Vegas, found guilty of a statutory offense in the Superior Court. "You failed to convince the jury of that," replied Judge Willis. Vegas said he realized it, but he wanted the court to know the truth, and that he had told the truth. Judge Willis gave him eighteen months in Preston.

IMPROVEMENTS. More condemnation proceedings were instituted yesterday by the city of Pasadena to permit further street improvements. William Henry Millholland and others are made defendants in suit for the opening and extension of Catalina avenue.

A new ordinance for the regulation of street traffic has been prepared by the City Attorney at the direction of the City Council and will be presented to the Council to day.

The Park Commission yesterday instructed the superintendent of the fire alarm telegraph to establish a private telephone service for the fire department at San Pedro for the use of the fire boats.

A new ordinance for the regulation of street traffic has been prepared by the City Attorney at the direction of the City Council and will be presented to the Council to day.

The Park Commission has decided to move the conservatory in Eastlake Park. The bridge is to be removed and the shore line of the lake is strengthened. The main entrance is to be given a pergola effect, and the lawn is to be enlarged.

At the Courthouse.

NEW VERSION OF WOODMAN VERSE.

COCOS PLUMOSA SUBSTITUTED FOR "OF AN OAK."

Attorney Who Holds Mortgage on West Adams Residence Secures Injunction to Restrain Owner from Removing Palms—Says "Spare that Tree," Effectively.

Vicissitudes that have been heaped on the heads of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Leavitt since they traded to Maj. and Mrs. Horace Marvin Russell, their Porterville ranch for the Russell residence, No. 718 West Adams street, were added to yesterday by their failure to break the injunction Attorney Edward Kuster brought against them.

Judge Craig in the Superior Court sustained Kuster's contention that the cutting of palm trees, other vegetation and outbuildings threatened the security of the $15,000 mortgage attorney holds on the property. The court ordered them to answer his complaint.

It was asserted by Attorney J. H. Urquhart, for the Leavitts, that Kuster had not shown that the damage had been done, is irreparable.

Kuster proceeded to argue a Supreme Court ruling about an oak tree. The opinion was that the cutting of ordinary trees and lumber is not an irreparable loss, as it might be caused by money.

But it was held if the owner had a palm tree, from which the owner derived comfort, shelter and enhancement to his property by its beauty, were removed, the damage would be such as money could not repay, and there was no cause.

Kuster substituted the removal of a big palm tree for the oak, and drew a similar picture. He then proceeded to argue his case along "Woodman, spare that tree" lines, although his reason for being in court was to safeguard his security of his mortgage by having the injunction upheld.

The case of Mrs. Mary J. Russell against the Leavitts for damages she sustained by being charged

jointly with her husband with embezzlement in justice court, in connection with the swap, was continued to Monday.

INJUNCTION DENIED.

ENGINE BID MUST STAND.

Contractor J. F. Connell in the Superior Court yesterday was denied a restraining injunction against the Board of Supervisors by which he sought to postpone the bidding in the Hall of Records of an engine by C. C. Moore & Company. The proceedings were before Judge Wilbur.

Connell sometime ago submitted a bid on the engine contract, in competition with the Moore company and other contractors. The board accepted the Moore bid. It was approximately $600 higher than that submitted by Connell. He now sought an injunction to prevent the engine being put in place, charging the interests of the taxpayers would not be properly served. He also contend that the expenditure of the additional $600 would be a waste.

Chief Deputy District Attorney Hanna said in the court that the bid was decided, the best of three available, and not including that of Connell, by Engineer Scatergood of the aqueduct project, on whose recommendation the board accepted it.

DALKS AT BIG FEEL.

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A MINUTE. Limited to ten minutes in which to examine Dr. H. E. Coger, in a judgment debtor proceeding by a San Francisco newspaper against the Earle Institute, which operates beauty parlors. Attorney John Beardley, for the plaintiff, yesterday, balked at paying a $2.50 fee for a stenographer.

Beardley, in the Superior Court, sought to get at Dr. Coger's books. The physician had them in court.

"Do your books contain the names of the women patients you have treated?" queried Beardley.

"No," replied the beauty doctor.

The women who come to have their faces treated usually give fictitious names."

The suit is to recover unpaid advertising bills, alleged to have been run up by the so-called institute. It was not concluded.

ASSAULT FINDING.

SAYS WOULDNT STAND TEST. Arguing on a demurral to the indictment against Harry L. and Edwin L. Crooker and C. F. Moore, in connection with the operations of the Domestic Utilities Company, yesterday before Judge Willis, Attorney Earl Rogers declared the finding by the grand jury would not stand as ordinary legal test.

With Attorney W. H. Dehm he declares that proof was lacking that John D. Brown had conveyed property, as alleged, or that there had been misrepresentation, beyond the bare statement there had been. The attack of the defendants was mainly directed against the wording of the indictment, and their counsel read a number of decisions in support of their contentions.

The Crookers and Moore seemed little worried. They smiled frequently as their attorneys bombarded the charges on which they are held.

The proceedings were continued until next Thursday.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS. SENT TO JAIL. "I am innocent of this charge," exclaimed Trinidad Vegas, found guilty of a statutory offense in the Superior Court. "You failed to convince the jury of that," replied Judge Willis. Vegas said he realized it, but he wanted the court to know the truth, and that he had told the truth. Perennial.

OLD CASE WILL BE HEARD AGAIN.

INTERESTING IS THE TRIAL OF AN ACCUSED ATTORNEY.

The Government is Ready for the Trial and Has Expended Small Fortune to Bring Witnesses Here, but It Is Believed Opposing Attorneys Will Ask for Delay.

The perennial Fred H. Thompson case will come up in the United States District Court this morning, following the mistrial of last summer, and the government has about $20,000 worth of witnesses to face the attorney, who is charged with having received $15,000 in cold cash stolen from the Los Angeles Postoffice by Orlando F. Alatorre.

The government is ready for the trial, but it is expected that a defense effort will be made by the defense to secure another postponement on account of the violation of the neutrality laws in the United States District Court yesterday, and their cases will be fixed for trial at the January term.

On account of the great cost of the trial, the government will oppose further delay. It will be urged that it was known when the case was set for trial that Davis could not be present; that Rush is in touch with the evidence, having sat through the trial nearly every day, and had intended to make the argument to the jury.

Assistant United States Attorney Regan will represent the government in this hearing, as he did in the first.

LOOKING FOR CONFESSION.

Authorities Who Have Alleged Counterfeiter in Keeping Believe He Will Make Clean Breast of It. That Hunter Pyron, alias Thomas A. Redman, now held in the County Jail on a counterfeiting charge, will within a few days appear in the United States District Court and plead guilty to a charge of counterfeiting, is the belief of authorities who have him in charge. Redman, as he better known, was captured by Special Agent Hazen at San Pedro, July 31, and is now held in $5000 bond.

Ernest Knight, a saloonkeeper, employed in a cafe on North Main street, yesterday recognized Redman as the man who had attempted to pass a $10 bill on him the night before his capture at San Pedro.

Redman already has served two terms in State and Federal prisons.

John E. Stewart, house officer at the U. S. Grant Hotel, San Diego, who was arrested Saturday morning before Township Justice Reeve, on the charge of failure to provide and wife abandonment. His preliminary examination was set for November 12. Bail was fixed at $1,000.

Upon his arrival in Los Angeles Saturday night Stewart got into communication with friends and procured the necessary funds. He alleged that his wife distorted the facts in procuring the complaint.

REDS ENTER PLEAS.

Ricardo Flores Magon, Enrique Flores Magon, Anselmo Figueroa and Liberdad Rivera pleaded not guilty to a charge of violation of the neutrality laws in the United States District Court yesterday, and their cases will be fixed for trial at the January term.

The Oil Industry.

PALMER MERGER GOES THROUGH.

Assets Now Controlled by Palmer Union.

Southern Oil Men Working on Water Problem.

General News of Interest from Oil Fields.

The Palmer Union Oil Company has over the properties and assets of the Palmer Oil Company, long known as the premier producer of the Marin field. The deal was consummated in San Francisco. According to the terms of the merger the Palmer Union Oil Company will pay its stockholders of the Palmer Oil Company $2,000,000 in 6 per cent. twenty-year gold bonds and $2,000,000 in capital stock of the Palmer Oil Company, which is capitalized at $100,000.

This gives to each stockholder of the Palmer Oil Company a par value of his present stock holdings in 6 per cent. twenty-year first mortgage gold bonds covering all the properties of the Palmer Union Company and the Palmer Oil Company. They will receive 6 per cent. annual income on their bonds, and in addition will get an amount of stock equal to their previous holdings in the Palmer Oil Company. The officials of the Palmer Union estimate their entire holdings to be worth $10,000,000.

It is estimated that the combined production of the two properties will be increased.

The Palmer Oil Company has five completed wells and two others in the process of drilling; and the Palmer Union has three wells nearly completed, and two others drilling on its lands. Marin property and five producing wells on its Midway property, there are said to be contracts in force for the sale of the two properties called for delivery of 2,000,000 barrels of oil.

It is said that the merger will place the treasury of the Palmer Union Company $1,000,000, and that with this as a working capital drilling will be continued, a pipe line will be constructed to Port Hartford, steamers will be secured, tankers located at San Pedro, Seattle and Portland and arrangements made to care for production at any available market.

UNION GETS BIG DEESE.GRAHAM-LOFTUS LAND.

It is said on good authority that the Oil Company has closed a deal with the Graham & Loftus Oil Company for a lease of 1250 acres of oil land adjoining the Amalgamated's property in the Fullerton field, and soon erect four new rigs for which contracts have already been signed.

The land is considered high quality.

Nearly months ago the Graham & Loftus Company sold a portion of its developed holdings in this field to the Delaware Union corporation for a sum considerably in excess of $1,000,-

ASSOCIATED RIGS OIL.THE AGENCY CONTRACT.

The Associated Oil Company, it is announced, will take no more oil on agency basis for the present, and contracts that have been delivering to the Associated without contracts will be obliged to shut down, seek another customer or store their own oil. The company's daily shipments increased considerably in September, and its production in the southern field has been considerably enlarged. There have been rumors that the company's drilling operations, will be curtailed for the time being at least.

On last Thursday the Associated started running oil for the agency at the rate of 12,000 barrels a day in the Coalinga field. The oil is being delivered under the contract for the rate of 700,000 barrels, and the output for the Coalinga field for the month of October was 114,000 barrels. It is believed the Associated is prepared for storage room, but that it will be able to catch up with its contracts when its storage reservoirs now being built in the Coalinga field, are completed.

RICH SAND UNDERNEATH.HALE-MCLEOD DRILLING.

Officers and stockholders of the Hale-McLeod Oil Company are enthusiastic over the results of drilling deep holes of the wells at Midland.

N. W. Hale has just reported from a week at the company's camp, and reports that in drilling No. 10, the drill passed through 100 feet of oil sand.

It is believed the Associated is prepared for storage room, but that it will be able to catch up with its contracts when its storage reservoirs now being built in the Coalinga field, are completed.

WATER MENACE TO OIL.GOVERNOR MAY ACT.

(From Correspondence of The Times.)

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 26.—When Governor Johnson issues his call for a special session of the Legislature, which is likely to be within the next few weeks, the list of subjects designated for consideration by the legislature will probably include a measure for the protection of oil fields from water as requested by the delegation of oil men that waited upon the Governor on Friday.

Gov. T. B. Miner, W. N. Forker, Andrew Cotton and T. M. Young, local members of the delegation, returned home with the manner in which the Governor had received their request.

The Coalinga district was also represented by a committee.

"The Governor said that he was strongly averse to meddling anything in the call that did not affect the oil fields, and that he had no desire to tend to creating any trouble or to tend to making the situation worse. He said that once we had no trouble in showing him the urgent need of action. He asked how it happened that the matter had not been settled.

He said that the matter had not been

DOUBTFUL COMPLIMENT.

People call Dr. McPherson, a colored evangelist who has come to Los Angeles to hold a revival among his people, the Billy Sunday of his race. After listening briefly to both men we are convinced that this is no great compliment to McPherson.

NOT NEW.

An apple tree bearing fruit that is both seedless and coreless found on the Davis Creek ranch is not entirely new. Such an apple was propagated by a man at Grand Junction, Colo., and he immediately incorporated his apple into a $1,000,000 company and sold buds from the first tree at a fabulous price.

AFTER THIS LIEAR.

A Leslie's Weekly is living in hopes that some day the masses of the unemployed will wake up to the fact that they owe their unhappiness as much to the muck-raker as to anybody else. With his programme of railroad smashing he sometimes succeeds in upsetting business, penalizing shareholders and endangering future employment. The day will come when the public will begin to suspect that to paralyze industries does not decrease the cost of living.

WILL HARDLY WORK.

The policy of opening up national reserves to settlers has been recommended on the theory that each settler would be the guardian of the reservation. There is no doubt that, if the settlers in sufficient numbers could be induced to take this land, it would greatly reduce forest fires and curtail the expense of maintenance, but most of the land reserved for trees has so many hills and so little water that it is not desirable for homesteading.

BROTHERLY LOVE.

The children of a local Catholic school gave a concert one afternoon last week at which they had as their guests the children of both the Catholic Orphan Asylum and the Jewish Orphans Home. This is not tolerance, but love. It expresses not only the spirit of Los Angeles and of America, but the spirit of the age. Mankind is coming into the consciousness of a brotherhood so broad and comforting that humanity begins to approach God as a race. Therein lies the hope of its arrival.

HUMAN NATURE.

An official report of the railroad wreck puts the blame on the fallibility of human nature. A good deal might be charged to human frailty with charity and justice. A contemporary recently registered a protest against a habit most newspapers have of emphasizing the fact that a man who makes some moral mistake is a church member. If a man connected with the Y.M.C.A., a church, or a Sunday-school makes a break from the straight and narrow many newspapers always see in the incident a church failure instead of recognizing it as the error of a single person among the hundreds of thousands of church members who do not go wrong. The churches' reason for being is that human nature has its weaknesses.

THE PROGRESSIVE RED MAN.

The Sioux Indian Exposition at Devil's Lake in North Dakota, which has just adjourned, attracted great attention in the East. The Sioux have made rapid advances in civilization in the last twenty years.

They have abandoned polygamy and limited domestic felicity to one spouse, and while they still pursue the pagan custom of burning down the house in which a member of the family dies, they pack him just before his death to a shack or tent, the destruction of which by fire will not entail serious financial loss. The Sioux now make brick with which they build their houses, and there are among them trained mechanics in the building trades. They raise on their farms every agricultural product raised by white men. The bread, pastry and preserves made by the squaws cannot be excelled anywhere. They have adopted civilized garments; they have sewing machines and bicycles; and there is talk of autos. They have sanitary plumbing in their cottages and use sheets and pillow cases in their bedrooms. There is a Sioux brass band and vocal music is taught in their schools. At present they lack a newspaper, but almost any day the Sioux "Scalpers Gazette" or the "Raise-Your-Hair Herald" may be expected to appear.

The Sioux have made great advances since the days when Red Cloud and Spotted Tail and their suite visited Washington and strolled over the carpets of the White House their head-dresses of eagles' feathers, each plume signifying a scalp—possibly of a white man or woman—that had been dispatched by the warrior to the happy hunting grounds.

In the science of nomenclature only there has been no advance. Three Sioux chiefs are named Icanjiki, Tirgwashe and Motocake. The first child is given a name, but succeeding children are given numbers only, until they become of age, when they are named after some event, or some personal specificity. "Beautiful Voice," "Appearing Day," "Greatful Form" and "Pretty Lodge Woman" are names possessed by squaws. "Running Bear," "Rain in the Face" and "Man Afraid of His Horse" were the names of Sioux chiefs.

Rights Defined.
JURISDICTION OF
CITY PARAMOUNT.RULING OF SUPREME COURT IS AGAINST CORPORATIONS.

Opinion of the Superior Court that a Municipality Has the Right to Name Terms by Which Telephone Companies May Use Its Streets Is Upheld—Pasadena Is Victor.

The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the decision of Judge Bordwell of the Superior Court, in the suit brought by the Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company against the city of Pasadena, laying down the doctrine that the control of the streets of a municipality is a pure municipal affair, and that it is within the province of a municipality to make such terms by which streets may be occupied by a corporation.

The cases were on appeal from an order dissolving a temporary injunction issued by the court denying an injunction and ordering the filing of a motion for a new trial. In a suit brought by the plaintiffs against the city of Pasadena and its officials, to obtain a decree restraining the defendants from interfering with the maintenance and operation of the plaintiffs' telephone and telegraph system so far as the same was located on the public streets of the city.

In August, 1887, an ordinance was adopted by the Board of Trustees of Pasadena on application of the Sunset company, granting the right to erect poles and run telephone wires along the public streets, the franchise to be twenty years, subject however, to the condition that the Board of Trustees reserved the right to control in the matter of location, construction and maintenance of the poles and wires.

In 1908 the Board of Trustees again granted a franchise, making it lawful to erect or maintain poles or wires on the public streets for use in "doing local or interstate business" without a franchise from the city of Pasadena. The plaintiff companies did not apply for a franchise for the use of the streets and refused to pay the charges demanded by the city, and the authorities began to remove the poles and wires from the streets. Then action was commenced to obtain an injunction restraining the city. The court holds that, as the city has power to withdraw from telephone companies the right to occupy portions of its streets by poles and wires, or to permit such occupation on terms satisfactory to it, it is competent for the city to name such terms and require the payment of such compensation as seems proper. It is simply a question of the extent to which the sort of the road constructed primarily for travel shall be diverted to other uses and taken away exclusively for the use of poles and wires.

MADE BOGUS COIN.

In Judge Wellborn's court yesterday, F. N. Guiteres, who pleaded guilty to the charge of making, having in his possession and passing counterfeit coin, was given a sentence of three years and three months in the Federal prison at McNeil Island. G. Valenzuela, who also pleaded guilty to making and having in his possession counterfeit coin, was given two years and two months at the same place. The men are the counterfeiters who operated a "plant" in El Cajon. Both were captured after a big chase by government officers, headed by Special Agent Hazen. Under the ruling of the court, each of the men secured one year and one month on each of the counts of the indictment. Guiteres pleading guilty to three and Valenzuela to two.

What You Pay for and What You Get

Those people who have been induced to buy cheap pianos under the impression that they were practicing economy, on the whole have paid a high price, as their later experience will prove.

There is no magic in piano-making which enables any manufacturer to turn inferior material, by the help of unskilled workmen, into good instruments. And yet only by the sacrifice of quality in both material and labor can manufacturers succeed to sell at the figures which are often quoted. The same common sense which guides you in buying of other kinds of merchandise should rule in the selection of a piano. There is a price limit below which you cannot go without paying too much for what you receive.

There are pianos offered at lower figures than ours, but when we say that for every dollar you invest in one of our instruments you get a dollar's worth, we state a fact which you can prove by a visit to our sales-rooms. Here are to be seen the broadest and the most select assortment of fine piano and player-pianos to be found on the Coast. Among them are the world's best, the Mason & Hamlin, the Conover, Hardman, Packard, Ludwig, Harrington, Price & Tissel, Cable, Kingsbury, Wellington, Milton and many others in regular pianos, while in players the Knabe-Angus, the Conover Inner-Player, the Emerson-Angus, Hardman, Autotone, Angelus Piano, the Carola and Kingsbury Inner-Players, Harrington Autotone and the Milton are shown and demonstrated daily. Easy payments.

Two Fifty Joe.

RIVERS HAS COSTLY HURT.

Black and Blue Spot Will Postpone Match.

Incidentally Will Save Joe About $250.

Welsh Coming; Kirkwood Has Kick; Joe's Auto.

On account of a black and blue spot that has appeared on the groin of Joe Rivers, it will probably be necessary to postpone the match between Rivers and Frankie Conley, set for November 11.

Incidentally, it will be worth $250 to Mr. Rivers if he is able to show the bruise.

This important disqualification appears to be entangled in an interesting row between the managers of Conley and Rivers over weight money.

As Harry Gilmore and Joe Levy are about the surestest in the business, the local sporting world is eagerly engaged in watching the negotiations.

Gilmore stated last night that Conley and Rivers were matched to fight Nov. 11 at 124 pounds. But now, he said, Rivers wants to renounce the extent of one pound: he wants to fight at 125 pounds.

Gilmore claims that, if he concedes this extra pound, he has the right to claim the $250 forfeit money.

His assertion is that it is mutually agreed between Gilmore and Levy that the forfeit money Rivers had up for the Kirkwood fight was to be held over for the Conley-Rivers fight. His position is that Rivers' request for the concession of another pound has the effect of completely nullifying the articles; that the articles calling for a weight of 124 pounds should be considered cancelled and new articles should be drawn up as for a new match.

The only thing, says Gilmore, that could excuse Rivers from paying over this weight forfeit money would be a physician's injunction.

It looks as though Joe Levy was so fortunate as to be able to come through with the necessary injury.

Tom McCarey officially announced last night that the match would be postponed owing to Rivers' physical inability.

McCarey informed by Levy today, said McCarey "that Joe was hurt in the Kirkwood match. A black and blue spot has developed on his groin and he has called in a physician.

The physician states that while the injury is not dangerous and possibly would not interfere with Rivers' performance, he would be responsible for the boy were he called upon to box as early as the eleventh. Of course, we have no choice, but to call off the match for the eleventh and reset it for the eighteenth."

WELSH ON THE WAY.

McCarey received word last night that Freddie Welsh has left New York and will be here yesterday night.

Welsh intended to go into training for his scrap with Ad Wolgate.

He will very likely train at Venice where he has made his home all summer and where he has many friends.

Ad Wolgate is still on his farm at Cadillac. He will probably leave in the middle of the week for Los Angeles.

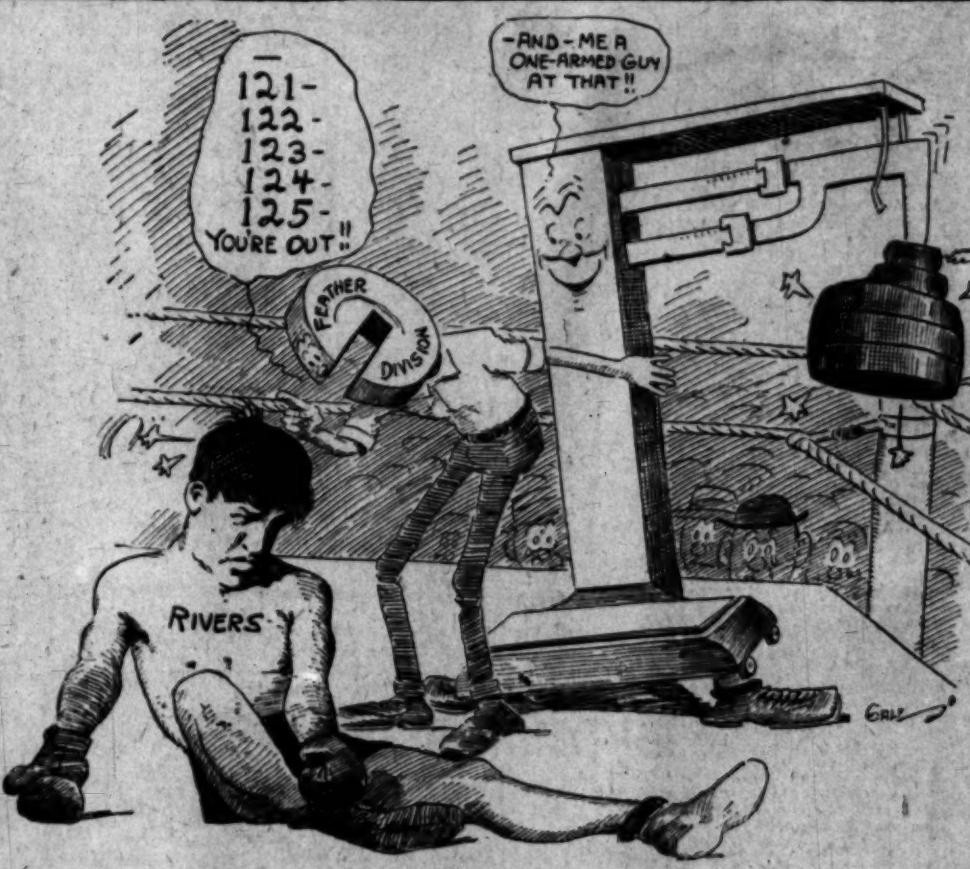

There is no longer any doubt whatever of the fight going on for Thanksgiving Day.

KIRKWOOD STILL HOLLERING.

George Kirkwood's manager, Humbrecht, visited the fight headquarters yesterday and let out a great yell.

He was kicking about the decision.

PHOENIX MEN PIN HOPE OF TREMAINE IN THE POPE.

Daring Driver Sends Fast Car Through the Wilderness and Arrives in Los Angeles One Day Ahead of Time—Is Confident of Victory and Says He Will Be at Goal First—Finds Cache of Rifles from Mexico.

BY BERT C. SMITH

C OVERED with the gritty sand of the lonely Arizona desert, W. D. Tremaine, in the Pope-Hartford, reached this city last night, from Phoenix, after a desperate drive of 42 miles. With the only Phoenix driver in the fierce Los Angeles-Phoenix sand battle, Tremaine finished the fast run and is ready to race.

Deep cuts on his face and hands, are mute evidence of the desperate fight through the bottom land of the Colorado, which he made with a driving and almost exhausted from his first journey, the man who took third place in the race last year came back confident of victory this time. He will start second and says he will finish first.

Left behind Tremaine was Bill Pratt in a Vette, used as a trial horse for Stoddard-Dayton. Pratt and Tremaine both drove over a cache of arms and ammunition, but Pratt waited to investigate. He found several Springfield rifles and five belts of cartridges, high-powered shells which the invader had planted in Devil's Canyon.

While the autolists were examining the find, Teddy Tetzlaff, in the Fiat, came snoring along. His eyes glowed as he looked at the rifles, each of which was covered with sand and caked in mud.

It was a rare find and Teddy was cautious. He advised the boys to warn the forest rangers and leave the goods be.

This Pratt did and the rifles are still resting among the rocks on the hardest stretch of the course.

PHOENIX CAR.

Tremaine had no time to wait second but I'll finish first. The Pope showed me what she can do. I know every foot of the road, and take it from me, the Phoenix entry will win the Phoenix race. I have my plans laid carefully. I know just what I am going to do, and will set such a pace that nobody will pass me. I can get the lead before we reach San Diego and I'll lead all the cars through Steele and Devil's Canyon. That ought to settle the Phoenix race. Looks as if the Pope would carry off the money by taking first place this year."

Clarence Smith came through yesterday on the Santa Fe with Ralph Hamlin, after having driven the Maxwell over the course. It was one of the fastest runs of the race despite the fact that he had a chance with a driving and a good start. He has the Maxwell. It starts first and makes the first car to reach the goal. Smith is a consistent and steady driver who knows how to handle a car in a big road race.

There is only one other outside entry besides Pope-Hartford. E. Ferguson of Bisbee, Ariz., has entered and will drive his Buick "Fatty." This car is here ready for the long, fierce grind and Ferguson is as fit as his friends know him.

Top Carrigan will drive the Midland. This chance was made yesterday and was made by Carrigan himself. Frank Siefert will not handle this car. He is willing and ready to drive a Berce race but Carrigan is anxious to do almost the impossible.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY PRINCE.

The photographic snap shots published in the Pink Sheet yesterday showing Hap Hogan's Vernon baseball team disporting themselves at the Maier ranch were taken by Prince of No. 397 South Broadway.

He will make an effort to send the car through himself. He will not relinquish the wheel from the time he starts until the car reaches the Fair Grounds at Phoenix.

Ralph Hamlin will spend this week training carefully. He will not drive the San Diego. Guy Irwin will send the air-cooled car over the first stretch to the initial checking point. Then Hamlin will take the Franklin for the drive through the desert with every chance to win a better place than he did last year. He was second in the last Phoenix race.

CUT OUT FOOTBALL AFTER FAD IS KILLED.

BOZEMAN (Mont.) Oct. 30.—Following the first football fatality in Montana, in which Charles Lange, a freshman at the Montana Agricultural College, lost his life, the game has been discontinued at that institution for this season, at least. This recommendation was made by the governing body and will be followed by the school authorities.

Decision Made. SAN DIEGO TO ADOPT RUGBY.

High School's Course Will Affect Whole Country.

Believed Others Will All Fall in Line.

Whittier and Redlands May Use English Game.

The authorities of San Diego High School have announced that the school will play Rugby football next year, and in preparation for the game the boys of the school have decided to start practicing at once.

They have already secured a number of rule and general instruction books from a local sporting goods house, and active practice will be started this coming week. The remaining schedule of American games will be carried out for this season, and the Rugby practice carried on at the same time.

As San Diego is the principal High School in the county it is more than probable that all the other schools in that section will follow its lead in this matter, leaving about five scattered schools in Los Angeles county as the only representatives of the old game in the State.

There is a well-founded rumor in circulation that both Whittier College and Redlands University have decided to change the coming season. It is obviously of great advantage for the latter to play the English game, as almost every student in the institution comes from the citrus belt High Schools, and has a good knowledge of the sport to start with, while few, if any, have experience in the old game.

It would seem by far the best policy for the remaining schools who still hold out, to get together before the close of this present season and decide to adopt Rugby football in 1912 or 1913, as they vote, instead of straggling in one at a time. The ones school is always at a disadvantage with the more experienced institutions for a year or more and school spirit generally lags after an unsuccessful football season.

CONLEY SPLITS WITH MANAGER.

Harry Gilmore, manager of Frankie Conley, officially announced last night that after the Rivers fight he would sever his connections with Conley as his manager.

"Our business and social relations are not what they should be between a fighter and his manager," said Gilmore last night. "And I can't see my way clear to going on with the present arrangement."

Conley holds a contract with Gilmore which gives him the fighter's power of attorney for a stated length of time, but Gilmore will release this and Conley will soon be out on a still hunt for a manager and he will have to travel some before he finds an all around man to fill Hustling Harry's shoes. He is an all around man and hard to beat at the game.

Gilmore does not want the impression to go out that he is dropping Conley for the Kilbane fight or because he thinks he might lose to Rivers.

"Frankie put up a good fight with Kilbane and I think he has more than an even chance with Rivers," said Gilmore, "but we can't agree on several matters which vitally interest both of us so we split."

Gilmore will go East at once after the Rivers fight, then may come back and go into business here as both he and his wife like Southern California. He has no other fighter in sight at this time, but says he can't get out of the fight game, as he likes it too well.

He took Conley when he was down and out in the East and made him a top notcher, but the little featherweight will have to paddle his own canoe from now on as Gilmore says he is done for good.

Pomona and Whittier meet Saturday afternoon on Hadley Field, in what will be the first real conference game of this season. It has been a long time since the Quakers have had the Sage Hens on the home field and direful things are promised for the up-country men in the batter. However, seriously speaking, the Pomona team should be favorites in this meeting, as they are a more solid offense than the Poets and the defense are up to par. Barnes and Lutz are still out of the game with bad shoulders, so Coach Stanton will have to use some of his first string subs in the backfield during the game. The two mentioned above are rounding up their backs, but it is too early to say if the team will be saved for the clash with Oxy on November 18.

Warren H. Bovard, the genial manager of athletics at S.C.A., has branched out again. First it was Rugby; when he waxed eloquent on the fine points of the new game in a lengthy article written in the most approved King's English, now it is the daytime pastime of golf. It all happened like this. Jim Donahue was talking about the game one afternoon in the gym and Warren overheard the remarks and said that golf was all right for old women, but that he was for the red-blooded stuff in the sport line. Jim ventured the remark that he, Warren, could say the game of golf was. Warren came back with the information that anybody could play it if they liked to walk.

The upshot was that last Sunday morning the two went out to the San Gabriel Country Club with Bert Elling, who was to act as official score-keeper.

As old Sol was placing the gloom in the east, the worthy trio milled brighter than ever for the Pomona game. The college conference dope is hard to figure out this year, even though the teams are scattered and the teams are at hand. Comparative scores are not safe things to judge by, but lacking other means of forming an opinion they must be used.

The dope seems to favor Pomona as a fast scoring team and Occidental as the next best. The two teams seem to be about at par on the defensive end of the game, with a slight advantage, if any, in favor of the Tiger institution. Each of the two big institutions has been scored on once, but the Tigers were scored on by a much stronger team in that it was the team with Pasadena High.

On Saturday, October 21, Pasadena High scored on Oxy in a hard fought game, Traverser getting away for a thirty-yard run as the result of a forward pass. The touchdown on Pomona was made by Ontario High, a team which has a hard time winning on. Their two teams barely nosing them out in the last five minutes by the score of 2 to 2.

Whittier has a much better record than the scores would show, the records having been made after several of the games had been played in the game and they are likely to put up a hard fight against the two larger institutions, Pomona and Occidental.

The outlook for the season leaves the fight for the rag between Occidental and Pomona, with hardly any advantage to either. The game at Claremont on November 18 should be worth going miles to see.

HOCKEY FOR SANTA MONICA.

Forth to do battle with the elusive golf ball. As Warren was the chief attraction he was allowed to drive off first. He should have had a back for this driving, but as he had a club for the purpose about one acre of the turf was pried up before he finally hit the ball.

The first drive was for a little over seven and a half yards, as he hit the ball gently on the top. By the time the aggression, weary and worn, after chasing Bovard's putts and drives, arrived at the ninth hole, all hands were played before members are drafted into these two teams.

Santa Monica will be well represented at hockey this season, as practically all last year's players have signed up and a great influx of new talent is hard at practice, qualifying for places on the "Reds" and "Greens" teams. Several practice games will be played before members are drafted into these two teams.

Los Angeles is somewhat backward in getting full teams, but with the advent of P. J. Higgins, who at present is coaching the University of Southern California Rugby football players, some life will be instilled into the locals. Miss Miller, captain of the ladies' team, and A. Mansfield, captain of the Los Angeles Hockey Club, picked up sides and played a lively game at Vineyard on Saturday. In two fast halves Alain, Vornam, Mrs. Blomfeld and the Misses Crosby and Bord passed and hit goals from difficult angles.

There are fifty or more established firms in this country alone doing a large business in parts of aeroplanes, like radiators, joints, etc. As in Europe, propellers are being designed and manufactured to the minutest parts of metal or wood.

In France the Chauvire company is a large corporation, employing many hundred men, with extensive shops, and turning out countless propellers for all types of air craft.

There are fifty or more established

BIRDMEN RISK LIVES FOR PALTRY PROFITS.

Many of these separately manufactured parts never get to be used in single-seated aeroplane, but serve mainly for the purposes of experiments.

The motor trade is also large, especially in France. The Gnome company pays dividends that few "industries" ever reach, and its business is increasing rapidly.

In the past the American automobile manufacturers are showing excellent qualities, and are much preferred here to the higher priced foreign motors.

Even the profession of the law is called into the aeroplane field to a great extent, the number of flourishing partnerships giving an indication of the amazing number of patents applied for.

The model aeroplane also plays its part in the industry and many model manufacturers sell several hundred of these toys at prices ranging from $1.50 to $20. Gliders (motorless aeroplanes) are also manufactured and sold especially in England, where "gilding" is becoming a hobby.

The number of corporations applying for certificates in various States, although only a few survive, gives a further indication of how active the field of aviation is becoming from the business side.

The model aeroplane by sportsmen and its use by individuals or corporations as a convenience, is the field best developed at present, and for which the greatest future is predicted.

The use of aeroplanes in war seems already definitely assured.

Exhibition flying, however, is likely, and in fact has begun to decline, although races if sufficiently exciting are likely to persist.

As regards the use of aeroplanes by sportsmen is bound to come soon, with the further perfecting of the hydro-aeroplane.

MAKING FOR AEROPLANES.

The market for aeroplanes is of considerable magnitude, as indicated by the volume of sales made by the various companies. M. Bleriot has sold several hundred aeroplanes since the spring of 1909, when he first began manufacturing them on a large scale. Some of them have been sold outside France and the enterprise of Emanuelli-Peltier, Sommer, Guguet, Nieuport, and a score of other constructors in France bring the total of actual sales to a surprisingly large figure.

A single-seater Bleriot monoplane costs $4,000 francs, and a two-seater, $5,000 francs. Voisin biplanes, a Breguet biplane costs about $4,000 and an Antoinette monoplane is even more expensive.

In general, the range of prices in France is from $4,000 to $6,000.

Too Much Hurry.

SPRIGS MANY IN THE BOLSA.Clubmen Make Limit Bags Staying Out Late.*Early Shot Scares Fowl and Spoils First Flight.*Many Sportsmen Get Limits in Saturday Shoot.

One hasty, ill-advised shot fifteen minutes before the opening bell kept Bolsa clubmen out hours longer than otherwise would have been necessary to bag the limit Saturday morning.

More sprigs—and freshly-arrived widgeon were seen on the ponds when the club wagons rolled past them the afternoon previous, than for several shoots, and the sportsmen generally were felicitating themselves upon the success of their lively day's work.

When, with a roar like that of an overcharged eight-horn, the premature shot belched forth, and ducks rose in clouds from every pond for half a mile around, flying about the clubmen's heads as they waded their various sloughs, few having reached their blinds.

The unattached gentry only await an excuse to open up before time, and apparently the same pernicious desire to "bag" the little exists among some of the fowlers although it is condemned most emphatically by the majority of clubmen, who wish to uphold the law and see others made to do so. Early shooting may give one man a kick, but deprives many hundreds of others of the chance to join in, and in that event the ducks depart at once for the sea. The effect of desultory popping away before shooting time is to make the fowl so wild that they leave at once when the bombardment becomes general, in place of the "one-horn," when the "canvassback" flight from the ocean begins.

A general yell of disgust and disapproval, in which even the road-hunters joined, greeted that the first shot there will be put, that or four shots only; one rise as the birds leave the ponds, and then a long cold shiver in the gray of dawn waiting with arms folded, cap pulled down and gun across one's blind front when the "canvass-back" flight from the ocean begins.

GET LIMITS.

Limits were killed quite generally in the Bolsa, particularly by the southernmost clubs, which again had a little better of the flight. Big ducks were more plentiful; a few dozen seem to have entered the running, and spoonbills are slowly increasing in numbers. Widgeon are plentiful, and, strange to say, somewhat wild. As a rule, they come down ahead of the sprigs when decoying to the ponds, but these birds seem to have been shot at considerably somewhere else.

On all the clubs those who bagged the limit had to work hard and shoot well for it. Few were in before noon, and some stayed out until sunset in order to time to leave for the 2:45 train.

The birds were very heavy, sprigs predominating, and showing uniformly good condition.

A few mallards were in evidence, also some redheads, and at least one pair of canvasbacks. Gulls have begun to manifest themselves, although scarce as yet. The cinnamon teal nearly all are gone on farther south. Friday's rain was so local in its character that no great change in the duck population occurred as a result, very little precipitation being recorded in the duck country.

One by one the clubs are taking steps to protect themselves from the road-hunters who constitute at present the greatest menace to present-day duck shooting in the country. The Chico club is planning to close its holdings with a seven-foot hog-tight, poacher-proof fence, and in all probability all its neighbors will do likewise. The Chico Land & Water Company abandoned its farmland east of the road ponds this summer, putting the unclaimed bottoms under cultivation for beans, and another tier of ponds was thrown up to the westward.

Next year the Chico club plans to carry its water right to the line of the Canvasback and Christopher clubs, thus making a continuous expanse of land for the shooting of all three organizations. In this manner the ground will be progressively reclaimed so as to be good for agricultural purposes if duck shooting ever wears out. It will never be good land, being essentially bad mechanically; but nearly all the gun club lands can be made to pay a profit by the best route.

Five gunners held forth over the Sammamish ponds, and Dr. E. L. Davis, Joe Welsh, and A. A. Gast got the limit. H. R. Bingham had 14, and E. A. Mass 22. Shooting was going throughout the noon flight with single Myers got a fine greenhead mallard which weighed 3 1/4 pounds, being in unusual fine condition for this country.

Chas. Anderson killed a small one across the road on the Los Patos grounds.

Joe Welsh let himself be carried by mistake some distance farther, having the pleasure of walking back and causing Pa Coxon, the dean of the club duck-shooters, no end of worry.

BIG GAME SATURDAY WAS NOT ONE SIDED.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.

BERKELEY (Cal.) Oct. 28.—The University of California Rugby team today played its second and final game against the British Columbia team, winning from them in a hard fought game, the story of which is not told by the press which is rather one-sided.

As a preliment to this game, the second "varsity" lined up against a team from the United States Marine Corps, beating them to the tune of 9 to 8 in a game sadly lacking in good playing.

After the game between U.C. and B.C. played last Wednesday, with the victory going to California, the coach of the northern team made several changes in his line-up, hoping to make a better showing in today's game, but it was of no avail, for they were beaten worse than before.

The Canadians kicked off, only to have the university forwards rush the ball back into their territory, and after a few moments of hard playing near the B.C. line, Peart of California won over for the first try, within five minutes. As he touched the ball down directly behind the goal posts, it was very easy for Elliott to convert and the score was 16 to 0.

After this try, Johnny Swartz got the ball near the center and made a try after a fifty-yard run through the entire northern backfield. Elliott converted, making the score 21 to 0.

With only a few minutes to play, the U.C. forwards again rushed the ball into the northerners' territory and Capt. Peart went over.

In the second try, the try was not converted and the score at the end of the game stood 24 to 0.

The game was hard fought throughout, and it was only by the almost marvelous defense which the Blue and Gold men put up that they were able to hold the Canadians down to no score.

For British Columbia, Thomas Price, the star, led the B.C. team to victory again, and he was able to score again.

The play stayed in California territory most of the half and many times it looked as though B.C. would score, but the university team always rallied when the ball got close to the line and the half ended with the ball near the center of the field.

The northern team then kicked off, and the character of the play changed. Canadians led by their forwards pushed the ball over the Blue and Gold goal-line.

The ball was then dropped out from the twenty-five-yard line to be promptly rushed back by the northerners, who had to give up the ball to the Canadians down to no score.

The game was hard fought throughout, and it was only by the almost marvelous defense which the Blue and Gold men put up that they were able to hold the Canadians down to no score.

For British Columbia, Thomas Price, the star, led the B.C. team to victory again, and he was able to score again.

The play stayed in California territory most of the half and many times it looked as though B.C. would score, but the university team always rallied when the ball got close to the line and the half ended with the ball near the center of the field.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN AND MEN BY OLIVE GRAY

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: The girl who will realize that there is more to beauty than mere facial prettiness and who will give attention to the entire body—its carriage and development—will have gained a long step toward the fulfillment of the ideal as a handsome woman. There are many exercises, simple in themselves and easy to practice, which will help materially toward poise of body. Several times a day, straighten the shoulders, stretch yourself to the greatest possible height and take a long breath. For five minutes, night and morning, take the exercises bending the body from the waist down, and throwing the arms forward and back. These are simple things to do and they take little time; yet you will be surprised at the results attained in a few weeks.

Do Not Be a "Can't-er."

If there is anything which is a constant deterrent to activity and to initiation, it is the person who always says that he "can't be done." No matter what the subject, or how great your enthusiasm, he or she meets it with this yet blanket—"It can't be done."

Possibly it cannot be done, but then I am filled with the enthusiasm of the inspiration or the ambition to want to be allowed to at least try, basking for a moment in the warmth of that glow. Probably I shall soon, sooner than I wish, that it "can't be done," but why anticipate failure? If you have tried hard enough to fail in an undertaking at the last, when you have made every possible effort for success—but why traverse that several times in advance—wait until you reach the failure, if it must be done.

You know I have a suspicion that there would be fewer failures if there were fewer "can't-ers." I feel the everlasting anticipation of failure is apt to bring it. The mood of scepticism gets into the atmosphere and everyone becomes suspicious as a logical consequence ensues.

We know that our financial system is built upon confidence—isn't it likely that the mood is true in other realms?

Few persons do their best work in atmospheres of doubt and distrust.

Over your own career and see if in those things which you have accomplished have not been the result of confident belief in your ability to do, which was communicated to you by a trusting friend.

Handwoven Silk.

It is often that you find silk which is good indeed. There is a lack of such base at one of the Broadway stores, and the price is no higher than that for the ordinary silks which "ladder" and poke through the toes the first hour they are worn.

Handwoven Silk.

You are inclined to be nervous, do pass that Halloween window on Broadway, after dark.

All kinds of "scary" things will start you there. First there is the one with the awful head, then comes the windmill sheet. A man who can make a single hair stand, and he is surrounded by individuals wearing frightful faces—depicting, perhaps, the emotions caused by the awful things they behold. Surely, the evil ones are all abroad, if one may judge by that Halloween window.

Wood to Burn.

No fire wood, but handsome armoires made from wood. When you begin to plan what you will make in that fine fine Christmas tree, think of the artistic value of the kind, and the few which are completed show the possibilities of the art of pyrography.

There are, in addition to the usual kinds of boxes, frames, plaques, etc., hand mirrors, mirror frames to hang, face chairs and settees. Very ambitious in their designs are some of the latter, while the woman of taste would find time to "do" a number of such, between now and Christmas. Some of the bold patterns, especially those in fruits, are very beautiful and effective.

Accessories in Party Frocks.

One of the high-class Broadway stores has a new line of patterns, or "frock" for party frocks, which are inspiring.

Many have floral borders, with great bows and other posies in various colorings, or blended together, in the tone of the fabric, as soft as the tones themselves, through a mist which harmonizes them while, at the same time, exaggerates the size of the flowers themselves.

It would take real art to make a fabric into frocks, but when such are made, with the highest manner art, they will be extraordinarily beautiful.

A Novel Suit.

One of the Broadway stores is noted for its handsome fabric importations. I saw a street, one afternoon, a suit of white velvet, made with one of the most delicate brocades, with the skirt being cut out on one side, so that it hangs on one side of the front than the other. The blouse and the pants were edged about with white lace.

Transferring Pictures.

"Do you know of any preparation that will make or produce that will transfer prints onto a white surface?" For example, if I wish to transfer a Perry print to a piece of white paper, isn't there some preparation that when brushed on the print, would transfer the surface to the other paper somewhat like what children call "kakamania's transfer?"

How to Make a Novelty.

They are made all in one piece, the back or front. In the summer, the blouse is adjusted to the waist, and the skirt is a double novelty in women's wear. She can give to finding fault with "up-the-back" hooking, and in fact with all usual intricate methods of adjusting women's clothes.

Now, if someone will invent a skirt which hangs in some similar manner, the dress reform problem will be well on its way toward solution.

Handwoven Fabrics.

In a French importing house on Broadway, I examined some new fabrics which were extremely good and handsome as well.

There were heavy cheviots and damasks in charming shades of pastel pink, blue and champagne; and there

The Crucial Day.

GREAT CITY'S FUTURE IN HANDS OF VOTERS.

Duty Calls Eighty Thousand Men of Los Angeles to Ballot, and Expectation Is that Over Half Will Respond—Mayor and Some of the Councilmen May Be Elected Today.

EIGHTY THOUSAND men of Los Angeles are privileged to vote today for the nomination and election of municipal candidates from 6 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening. It is not expected that much more than one-half will perform that duty. But if the other half could have been impressed by the demonstration of the Socialists last night in their parade, where 9000 men marched, they would bestir themselves and make it a 90 per cent. vote.

No better argument against apathy has been made than last night's lurid display, with its howling men and its menacing Marsellaise, culminating in a tremendous meeting at the Auditorium, which overflowed into half dozen other meetings. It was a defiance of the present orderly conduct of affairs and a promise of a revolution. It was testimony, unflinchable and eloquent, of the menace to the forward march of Los Angeles. For with these men who marched in these crowds that listened rapt, stoned the spirit of revolution—the doctrine of annihilation of thrift and industry and the locked step where the swiftest mark time with the slowest.

Besides this volatile force the endings of the Musket and Good Government campaigns were little, big though they were. The spectacle not only awed the spectators, but it fired each with the regard for duty that means a vote at the polls today that will nip the red menace in its budding and wither its roots.

Estimates on the vote at the elections vary from 27,000 to 50,000. The popular expectation is for about 45,000 votes, though many were encouraged to believe last night that it may be several thousand in excess. Campaign managers still rely on a minimum of 40,000, but they disagree widely as to the result that will be shown when the ballots are counted.

While the noise and number of the Socialists suggest great increase of power, it must be remembered that their parade lines included hundreds who marched to avoid fines, other hundreds who came from Pasadena, Long Beach and elsewhere, and still other hundreds who are not Socialists.

SOCIALISM'S HATRED.

[Editorial reproduced from The Times of August 20, 1911.] The attitude of socialism toward religion is that of the materialist, with the narrowness of the bigot and the malice of the devil adored. The socialist leader, Blatchford, published in the Clarion the following as the creed of socialism:

"I deny the existence of a Heavenly Father, I deny the efficacy of prayer, I deny the prophecies of God, I deny the truth of the Old Testament and the New Testament. I deny the truth of the Gospels. I do not believe that any miracle was ever performed. I do not believe Christ was divine. I do not believe that Christ died for man. I do not believe that He rose from the dead. I am strongly inclined to believe that He never existed at all."

Karl Marx endorses the creed proclaimed by Blatchford and supplements it with the kindly and courteous remark that "the sheep's nature of a Christian is shown in his resemblance to the Lamb of God."

Mark says: "We make war against all religious ideas of God, of the state, of country and patriotism. The idea of God is the keystone of a perverted civilization. It must be destroyed. The true test of liberty, of equality, of culture is atheism."

If socialism should ever prevail in our country one of its first tasks would be to abolish the churches and hospitals and houses of shelter for the sick and lonely that link their shadows across the land.

Next to his hatred of religion the socialist holds dear his hostility to marriage. Bernard Shaw says: "Unless a woman repudiates her womanhood, her duty to her husband, to her children, to society, to the law and to everyone but herself she cannot incarnate humanity." The socialist has no repudiate duty altogether. Bobo, the German socialist leader, says: "Men and women, being animals, can we talk of matrimony and indissoluble bonds?" William Morris says: "Marriage should be an association terminable at the needs of either party." Belfort Bex says: "Monogamy must breed down before a free organization of human relationships, and H. C. Wells says: "The socialist has no regards the institution of marriage as a permanent thing than he regards a state of competitive industrialism as a common thing."

Bryant says he is convinced that Alexander will receive at least 20,000 votes; if only 40,000 he will be elected. He says there are about 12,000, Musket about 6000, and Gregory and Becker 2000 between them. He thinks the red Socialist demonstration hurt the Musket candidacy.

If the vote is greater than 40,000, Bryant believes the increase will be three to one, at least, in favor of Alexander. He figures that the reds will cast all their votes today.

Other Good Government leaders said the vote will be about 42,500 and that Alexander will surely receive 22,000.

MUSKET FIGURES.

Musket headquarters figured things differently. A. W. Francisco, who has managed the campaign, asserted the voters of their city with respect to all social restraints and the inauguration of the promiscuousness of beasts as a substitute for the present orderly and honorable relations of men and women. The leading purpose of California socialists appears to be not so much the abolition of divine worship and the marriage relation as in holding up a difference between mine and thine, an approval of larceny and embezzlement both as a principle and as a practice. "Repudiation of the national debt" is a part of the official programme of the Social-Democratic party. "Confession will be the seal of the new era," says E. Belfort Bex. "The purpose of communism (of property) ought to be the manifest and directing idea of the whole movement," says Jauré. "Socialism is one of the methods by which the annual wealth wrung from the working community by the possession of land and the town."

The final work of Mayor Alexander was to address the Young Men's Progressive League at its meeting in the Wright & Callender building.

The final Harriman appeal was at the Auditorium.

Preparations for getting out the capital may be restored in social benefits to the people to whom it should righteously belong," says H. Russell Smart.

Jack London, in late number of the Contemporary Review, says: "Socialists intend to destroy bourgeois society with most of its sweet idols and dear moralists, and chiefest among these are those who group themselves under such heads as private ownership of capital, survival of the fittest, and patriotism—even patriotism."

That socialism and closed-shop trade unionism are akin to each other, that they are so closely allied as to be considered as one, is openly proclaimed. In the official manifesto of the Socialist party of Great Britain, it is said: "The basis of the action of the trade unions must be a clear recognition of the position of the workers under capitalism and the class-struggle necessarily resulting therefrom; in other words, they must adopt the socialist position if they are going to justify their existence at all."

COLORED RALLY ENTHUSES ALL.

WHIRLWIND TOUR WITH MUSIC AND SPEECHES.

Business Men of Race Organize, Visit Fourteen Neighborhoods and Arouse Voters to Duty—Estimate Alexander Will Get Over Three-fifths of Vote.

About the busiest and most successful whirlwind finishers of the municipal campaign were the representatives of the Colored Business Men's League, who made a tour of fourteen neighborhoods where members of their race live. They found a sure way to annihilate distance and bring crowds magically.

In two big touring cars with a mandolin and guitar trio, and a quartet of female singers, they woke up the first neighborhood with familiar music. This was repeated at each stop.

The tour ended with a meeting at the Colored Elks Club, on Spring street between Second and Third streets, after which the party stopped to serenade the Times.

The tour was in charge of J. J. Neimrod, editor of The Eagle, J. W. Coleman, R. H. Pierce, a contractor and architect, and Milton W. Lewis, a real estate dealer. They made the speeches. It was a sudden conquest of colored votes for Alexander and the Good Government ticket.

The autos bore the Mayors' pictures and the Good Government banners.

Speaking of the tour Mr. Lewis said: "We have aroused great enthusiasm all evening. There are about 6000 colored voters in the city and Alexander will get approximately 4000 of this number. It needed only a definition of the few real issues to place the colored voter right."

The churches are all with us in this work. They have helped a whole lot and we feel that the colored voters will be a power in the victory today."

WHAT PHILLIPS SAYS.

Phillips says he does not believe brewery interests are behind the second petition. He says he is convinced of its bona fide character. But he would not say that he actually knew who was back of Gray.

"Whatever motive is behind it," said he, with complacency, "this much is accomplished. The question will go on the ballot and the people will have a chance to vote on it. It will be up to them. I do not see how it can affect the candidacy of any man for office. It is separate and apart. No one can say he will not take sides, at least, in the game of prohibition politics."

Phillips said, when the documents were filed, that he had satisfied himself that Gray was acting for those who want the prohibition question tested and feared Phillips might fail in getting the required signatures.

Phillips did fail in getting a petition filed to get the prohibition city ticket on the ballot.

This unexpected fusion of known and unknown interests was followed quickly by the assertion that Gray, who retired from newspaper work a week ago, had been employed by a newspaperman and attorney to represent Williams. Williams is one of the Musket political managers and has close relations with the Examiner, which is friendly to Musket for Mayor. Good Government officials asserted positively that they have information showing the whole connection of Williams with the second petition.

The second petition was introduced to the city committee to vote today. It was voted down.

It is pointed out that the Phillips initiative was sprung a week ago. The days afterward L. W. Daley, chairman of the City Protection Committee, called a meeting to discuss the project and he, personally, discouraged it. Before last Friday night's meeting it looked as though the city committee would turn against a vote at this time. It was then that Gray was elected to the committee. Gray were cooperative to the motive back of them. Even Phillips intimated that it was a scheme of politicians or brewers or liquor dealers. He now thinks differently.

FROM Supt. FRANCIS.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In the statement appearing in the morning papers signed by Mrs. R. L. Craig, Reynold Bright and R. H. Bellot in which they make serious charges against the practices of our medical department in examining school children, the criticism, if any, belongs to the Superintendent of Schools since the Board of Education must necessarily depend upon us for carrying out the educational policies of the department. In a school system as large as this one, with 1500 teachers and 50,000 pupils, it is impossible to wholly avoid all complaints.

It has been the policy of this office to encourage people to communicate with it whenever they have complaints to make. No complaint or protest has been lodged against the practices of the Health and Development Department in examining school children since the former Superintendent of Schools in 1910.

As these charges are of such a nature that if true, they would arouse the vigorous and immediate protest of parents and as no such protest has been made, we assume that those making the charges have been informed.

I deem it highly regrettable that these charges should first be made through the public press rather than to the Superintendent of Schools or the Board of Education, who are in position to discover the truth and correct any mistake that might occur.

I am informed by our physicians that they have not stripped girls for examination as charged, have not removed pupils when requested by parents not to do so, and that they have made sex examinations without the consent of parents and the presence of one or more of the relatives.

No mention was made in these charges of the fact that women physicians examine the girls and men the boys.

J. H. FRANCIS, Superintendent.

CITY HALL REGISTRATION.

Miss Fay announced that registration at the City Hall will close for the day at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon on account of large crowds who will be in the City Hall after that hour awaiting election returns.

SCHOOL HEALTH.

Statement by Physicians.

We, the undersigned staff of physicians of the Health and Development Department of the public schools, feel that a great injustice has been done the department by the publication of the signed statement of Mrs. R. L. Craig, Rev. R. E. Blight and J. H. Bellot appearing in your paper of October 20, 1911. We wish to make the following statement of facts in answer thereto:

(1.) We most heartily endorse the sentiments set forth in Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 of their statement.

With reference to No. 8 we wish to state that:

(1.) No examination of children has been made by this staff where any parent or guardian has made an objection to the same beforehand.

(2.) We absolutely deny ever having made sex examinations of girls without the parent's consent, and no such examination has ever been made except by the women physicians of the staff, and then only when the parent or guardian was present.

(3.) No young girls have ever been stripped and examined" by any physician of this department. We invite the fullest investigation of the public.

the home of the present Mayor there are houses in which vice is rampant and that if Job Harriman is elected this will not happen with the knowledge and consent of the new Mayor.

Vice, he said, is rampant in Los Angeles in many localities and the present administration has done nothing to prevent it.

Under a Socialistic regime in case of a strike the new government will not stand for violence on either side.

The strike violence of the past has not belonged to the strikers but to the police in his opinion, but has been the antecedent violence from year to year.

If there ever comes a time, he said, under Socialistic rule, when the constabulary of the city must be impressed into service, it will never stand for plutocracy against the working girl.

SOCIALIST TEARING DOWN.

Frank E. Wolfe spoke along the same line, denying that the corporations are in any measure lining up with the Socialists in the present campaign.

He gave his experiences in the Berkeley campaign which elected Wilson, and said that nothing adverse has come to Berkeley as a result of the Socialist victory there.

JOIN FORCES ON INITIATIVE.

Phillips and Gray Combine Dry Ordinance Work.

Petitions Filed With Over Three Thousand Names.

Supposed Political End Furnishes Biggest List.

An initiative petition, the joint work of Rev. Wiley J. Phillips and Harry A. Gray, late night city editor of the Examiner, was filed with the City Clerk yesterday, asking the adoption of an ordinance making Los Angeles a prohibition city.

The ordinance was prepared by Nathan Newby. It was taken bodily by Gray and placed on his petitions and given to John P. Steele, expert petition getter, to circulate. As a result the two petitions were fused yesterday and filed by Phillips and Steele, with 3317 names on them.

The charter requires about 1900 to make a petition mandatory on the Council to refer to a general election.

A feature of the fused petitions was that Phillips, alone, had but 1250 signatures, a quantity largely insufficient.

He says he has several hundred more coming.

Gray's petitions had 1627 signatures.

Thus the effect of making one good Phillips' project for him by a stranger, at least, in the game of prohibition politics.

Phillips said, when the documents were filed, that he had satisfied himself that Gray was acting for those who want the prohibition question tested and feared Phillips might fail in getting a petition filed to get the prohibition city ticket on the ballot.

This unexpected fusion of known and unknown interests was followed quickly by the assertion that Gray, who retired from newspaper work a week ago, had been employed by a newspaperman and attorney to represent Williams.

It was then that Gray was elected to the committee.

He concluded by urging every citizen to vote today and while he predicted victory for them at the polls, he told them that the sentiment they had created and the demonstrations they have made already constituted a moral victory.

Rev. T. W. Williams discussed his ideas of a city Government, saying:

If I elected, his first effort in the Council chamber will be to repeal all violations of our civil rights.

He spoke of their efforts in the city in violating the picket ordinance.

He said that the City Jail had more Socialists than any other agency and that while the present administration had ridden the sour Women's Progressive League for Alexander.

In Politics to Stay and Has Thousands.

Officers Are Elected and Committees Named.

Los Angeles women made their debut into practical politics yesterday afternoon with a speech forcefulness at 1000 women. It required less than five minutes to perfect a speech working instrumentally at Blanchard Hall at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

No large organization ever took form in less time or with more simplicity than the Woman's Progressive League which has for its purpose the re-election of George Alexander as Mayor of Los Angeles.

Mrs. George L. Cole called the meeting to order and without the waste of a second called upon Mrs. Frank Gibson, chairman of the committee on permanent organization, for her report.

Mrs. Gibson said:

"Fellow citizens, we have much to do and a limited time in which it can be done. We can only accomplish the work at hand by organizing a machine. I hope our committee is offering you a good machine and that you will make short shrift in accepting it."

"We recommend the following officers: President, Mrs. George L. Cole; vice-president, Mrs. Mary Kenney; secretary, Mrs. O. P. Clark; treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Kyser.

"We recommend the following chairmen of committees: full power to make their own appointments, Mrs. Frank Gibson and Mrs. R. L. Craig; registration, Mr. George H. Harry; meetings, Mrs. Fred W. Wood; membership, Mrs. George H. Wadleigh."

This report was adopted by acclamation, and Mrs. Cole immediately called on the chairmen of each of the new committees for their plan of procedure. When these reports had been received the chair announced that while they hope Mayor Alexander will be elected at the primaries they intend to continue their organization in the event of a tie. Committee members who will support the Major will be asked to vote early, but to others to vote often.

SLIM YOUTH BUTT OF FUN.

Each of these men under skillful examination of counsel made statements which standing alone would indicate an unfair state of mind. But it would be most unfair to draw conclusions from selected, isolated statements of the jurors made upon their examination.

The court must consider all that was said by the juror; and all things that appeared to affect his mind or influence his statements, including his embarrassment, if any, growing out of unfamiliar surroundings, and a searching examination, etc. Upon such consideration the court was of the opinion that both of these jurors could set fair and impartially, according their verdict solely upon the evidence presented upon the trial, and uninfluenced by any preconceived opinions. Having come to this conclusion, the court had no alternative, under the law, but to disallow the challenge, and ruled accordingly.

The latest challenge of the defense, which was not used, was also withdrawn by the court, as the defense had already made an effort to render to the jury the court's ruling disallowing the previous challenge. This is what prompted the defense to lodge the second challenge. It is not a legitimate proceeding and cannot be permitted. It may well be doubted if such a challenge would have been allowed by a defendant for such cause, where it is plain that only the prosecution is interested or could be prejudiced by the retention of the juror.

SMILES TO FROWNS.

Darrow and Davis, on behalf of the defense, made elaborate objections to the opinion of Judge Bordwell. The defense seemed shaken by the decision, for the usually similing lawyers remained silent and gloomy.

Possibly it was the influence of the defense's decision that caused Darrow to examine Talmann Johnson in what seemed to be a harsh manner. But the questions were readily answered by the prospective juror without any appearance of irritation.

Johnson said he was 69 years old and had been a resident of Pasadena for over 20 years. In his younger days he stated he had been in iron and brass moulder in various parts of the East.

He said he had never belonged to labor organizations and felt that many of the members preferred to do a minimum of work rather than the day's task was allotted by the employer. Johnson happened in the course of his replies to speak of "tramps" union men. The phrase seemed to greatly anger Darrow. He pounced upon the old man with a number of questions, and ever and anon brought up the word "tramp" as if to show what the talmann thought of union men.

LITTLE FOR MUCH?

Johnson said his experience with members of unions had been that most of them wanted to work only as long as they thought they ought to.

You still have the same opinion of union men?"

"Well, I may, but time doubtless has modified my views."

Johnson was asked what papers he read, that he had taken most of the Los Angeles papers at one time or another. At one time he took The Times.

"Do you know the views of The Times on labor questions?" asked Darrow.

NOTES, somewhat.

"What do you mean by 'somewhat'?"

"I mean that I have an idea about its views."

"What's the matter with the paper? Isn't it radical enough for you?"

I can't answer that."

"Well, do you disapprove of its views?"

"I think I am merely disinterested."

Darrow interrogated the talmann sharply about strikes. Johnson said he didn't keep track of them.

"Well, you know what a strike is, don't you?"

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THEM?

"Only what I read in the papers."

"Did you know there was a strike in Los Angeles last year?"

I can't say that I do."

"Did you know the Times Building was destroyed?"

"Yes, I read about that."

"But you don't know there was a strike in Los Angeles last year?"

"I might have read something about it."

THE SLIM YOUNG MAN.

Johnson was also questioned about an alleged conversation he had with a slim young man, August 21, last. The "slim young man" was in the employ of the defense.

Johnson denied having any conversation with him, and was asked to answer the description.

Deputy Ford asked Darrow to produce the witness.

One question was whether Johnson believed in the death penalty in cases where the evidence is circumstantial.

He replied he did not. He was then challenged by the defense. It was resisted by the prosecution.

After a short session Deputy Ford argued against the challenge of Johnson.

The court then brought the ground as indicated in its previous opinion that the challenge based on the talmann's disinclination to the death penalty was not properly a ground for challenge on part of the defense but for the prosecution.

This challenge for implied bias being overruled, Darrow went on further to examine Johnson as to actual bias as defined by the code. The lawyer could not make the old man admit that he had ever made any special comments upon the McNamara case and the destruction of the Times building.

R. H. Fitzgerald, employed by the defense, was then brought into the courtroom and sworn. He said that he had visited the talmann (indicating Johnson) and had a long conversation about the present case.

GUM-SHOES FOR DEFENSE.

Upon a severe cross-examination by Deputy Ford, the witness said that he had been working for the defense in writing down who might be called as jurors in the trial. He said he called under the guise of a person collecting statistics. He could not remember where Johnson lived, what was first said, or what was the way in which he had gained the alleged information. He repeatedly answered the questions and Thomas E. Proctor, the defense attorney, "I can't say, as the defense prosecutor dug into the young man's motives.

Fitzgerald said he "refreshed his
